8) What must I do to request for a license verification?

Verification of licenses can be done on-line at no cost using our license search site at <https://pvl.ehawaii.gov/pvlsearch>. You or the requesting agency will be able to obtain information such as original license date, license expiration date, license status, disciplinary action, etc. The information downloaded from this site is official license information which state boards or other individuals can download for themselves.

If the above is not acceptable, please submit a written request that includes:

- The license name and license number
- The complete name and mailing address that the verification is to be mailed to along with a $15 fee (check payable to Commerce and Consumer Affairs):

Mail Request To: Licensing Branch – License Verification
P. O. Box 3469
Honolulu, Hawaii 96801

Office location: 335 Merchant Street, Room 301

13) What must I do to file a complaint against a licensee?

The Regulated Industries Complaints Office (RICO) investigates allegations of professional misconduct by licensees and unlicensed activity.

For information and forms for filing a complaint against a licensee go to: <http://cca.hawaii.gov/rico/file-a-complaint/>

14) Where can I find a Board meeting schedule?

To find a Board meeting schedule, please visit the particular Board's website and click on Board Meeting Schedule to view its calendar of meetings.

You may also confirm a meeting date, time, and location by referring to the State of Hawaii's Online Calendar that is located on the PVL homepage at <http://cca.hawaii.gov/pvl/calendar/> six (6) days prior to the meeting.

15) Where can I find the law and administrative rules for a specific licensing area?

To find the law and administrative rules for a specific licensing area, please visit the Board's website and click on HRS (for statutes) or HAR (for administrative rules).

16) How can I obtain a list/roster of licensees for a particular profession?

The Professional and Vocational Licensing Division does not have mailing lists of licensees. The Division maintains a public roster of licensees that includes only public information (e.g., licensee name, license number, license status, and license effective/expiration dates).

The roster is available for purchase via the Internet through the PVL List Builder online system at <https://pvl.ehawaii.gov/pvllistbuilder/>. The PVL List Builder allows you to build and download a customized list of licensees under the jurisdiction of the Professional and Vocational Licensing Division of the Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs. The cost will depend on the number of licensee records in your list. There is a minimum cost of $5.00 for list of 100 or less licensees. The cost for additional records over 100 is .05 cents per record.

Lists purchased and information on downloading your list will be sent to you via email within 24 hours. The list will be in an electronic comma delimited text file. This file can be easily loaded into most database or spreadsheet programs such as Access or Excel.
