Call the Office of the Securities Commissioner to report investment fraud in Hawaii

ACTIVITY BOOKLET FOR SENIORS

Department of Commerce & Consumer Affairs Office of the Securities Commissioner

1

The main focus of our booklet is on financial and investment frauds, which continue to be a growing problem. Every year, victims are scammed out of millions of dollars. Seniors, especially in Hawaii, are a target for con artists because they tend to have a trusting nature and a large nest egg. Often times, the "con artist" turns out to be someone that the victim knew and trusted. Don't let a greedy con artist take your hard-earned money!

We hope you find our activity booklet helpful. If you have any questions or would like to request additional copies, please feel free to contact our Investor Education Program at (808) 587-7400 or visit our website at investing.hawaii.gov.

FIVE TIPS TO PROTECT YOUR MONEY

- Check the registration and background of the individual selling the investment by contacting the DCCA – Securities Compliance Branch at 586-2722. Anyone selling a security must be registered. Remember no registration, no sale.
- Do your homework ask questions and do your research about the investment. Don't rely on reputation or word of mouth alone.
- 3. Beware of promises that promote high or unrealistic returns in a short period of time.
- 4. Beware of investments promoting no downside or risk. All investments have some degree of risk.
- Beware of vague or over complicated explanations of how the business runs and how money is made. If you don't understand how it works, do not buy it.
