SUBCHAPTER 1

GENERAL PROVISIONS

§16-99-1 Objective. This chapter, adopted by the real estate commission, hereafter referred to as "commission," is intended to clarify and implement chapter 467, Hawaii Revised Statutes, as amended, to the end that the provisions thereunder, for the protection of the general public in its real estate transactions, may be best effectuated and the public interest most effectively served. [Eff 12/26/74; am and ren §16-99-1, 4/27/81; am and comp 6/28/82; comp 3/3/84; comp 11/3/90; comp 2/25/91; comp 5/21/01; comp 12/19/16] (Auth: HRS §467-4) (Imp: HRS §467-4)

§16-99-2 Definitions. As used in this chapter:

"Approved curriculum" means the curriculum or courses approved by the commission as satisfying the education requirements established for real estate broker and salesperson license examination applicants.

"Branch office" means a place of business other than the principal place of business from which real estate business is conducted. Branch offices located on an island different from the principal place of business shall be registered with the commission. Branch office registration shall not be required for places of business located on the same island as the principal place of business and registration shall not be required for any additional place of business from which real estate broker activities are engaged in exclusively relative to a condominium project, real estate subdivision, larger community development developed by a single developer, time share project, new or existing shopping center, or other commercial building.

"Brokerage firm" or "firm" means a sole proprietor broker licensee, or a partnership, corporation, or limited liability company licensed as a broker.

"Broker-in-charge" means an individual broker licensee designated by the principal broker as the broker directly in charge of and responsible to the principal broker for the real estate operations conducted at the principal place of business or a branch office. The principal broker may designate one or more brokers-in-charge of the principal place of business or branch office, provided that there shall be at least one broker-in-charge of each branch office. A broker-in-charge may be designated to more than one branch office.

"Broker-salesperson" means an individual broker licensee who associates that individual's own license with a brokerage firm as an employee or independent contractor.

"Commingling" means to mingle or mix, such as a deposit of client's funds in the broker's personal account.

"Inactive" means the status of a current license that is not forfeited, suspended, revoked, or terminated, the holder of which cannot transact any real estate business until the license status is changed to "active" status.

"Involuntary inactive" means the status of a current license resulting from the forfeiture, suspension, revocation, termination, or inactive status of a principal broker, broker-in-charge, branch office, or brokerage firm, as the case may be.

"Licensee" means the person in whose name the commission grants a license.

"Place of business" means the physical place where business is conducted other than a post office box, telephone, telephone answering service, letter or mail drop service, or motor vehicle within the State, and may include a home occupation office. The place of business shall conform with the permitted use under the zoning code of the county in which the place of business is situated and with any declarations, bylaws, house rules, recorded restrictions, or covenants that may govern the place of business. The commission may use as guidelines, but is not limited to, the following factors in finding that a brokerage firm is maintaining a place of business: physical presence of the broker during reasonable scheduled office hours; on-site maintenance of confidential clients' files which shall be immediately accessible to the commission upon request; the prominent display of the brokerage firm's name or trade name as licensed by the commission and the listing of the brokerage firm name where permissible in the building directory; the operation of the brokerage firm at a place of business directly accessible to the public; and the on-site maintenance of personnel and compensation records for all real estate salespersons and broker-salespersons employed by or associated with the brokerage firm. Client files as used in this definition include but is not limited to: real estate contracts, escrow records, trust account records, and confidential client data. "Place of business" does not include the operation of a place of business designed to evade the requirements of the definition as set forth in this paragraph. Each brokerage firm shall have one, and only one, principal place of business.

"Supervision" means the act of directing, inspecting, and reviewing.

"Trust properties" includes funds in the form of cash or checks, and personal property other than cash or checks, received by the licensee to be held in trust for the benefit of the depositor of the property or for the benefit of third persons, or both.

"Wall certificate" means a certificate of license issued by the commission to a qualified person either as a salesperson or broker. [Eff 12/26/74; am and ren §16-99-2, 4/27/81; am and comp 6/28/82; am and comp 3/3/84; am 9/29/86; am and comp 11/3/90; comp 2/25/91; am and comp 5/21/01; am and comp 12/19/16] (Auth: HRS §§467-4, 467-25.5) (Imp: HRS §§467-1.5, 467-7, 467-8, 467-11, 467-12, 467-14, 467-25.5)

§16-99-3 Conduct. (a) To fully protect the general public in its real estate transactions, every licensee shall conduct business, including the licensee's own personal real estate transactions, in accordance with this section.

(b) The licensee shall protect the public against fraud, misrepresentation, or unethical practices in the real estate field. The licensee shall endeavor to eliminate any practices in the community which could be damaging to the public or to the dignity and integrity of the real estate profession. The licensee shall assist the commission in its efforts to regulate the practices of brokers and salespersons in this State.

(c) The licensee shall not be a party to the naming of a false consideration in any document, unless it be the naming of an obviously nominal consideration.

(d) The licensee shall recommend that title be examined, survey be conducted, or legal counsel be obtained when the interest of either party requires it.

(e) The broker shall keep in special bank accounts, separated from the broker's own funds, moneys coming into the broker's possession in trust for other persons, such as escrow funds, trust funds, clients' moneys, rental deposits, rental receipts, and other like items.

(f) The licensee, for the protection of all parties with whom the licensee deals, shall see that financial obligations and commitments regarding real estate transactions, including real property rental management agreements, are in writing, express the exact agreements of the parties, and set forth essential terms and conditions, and that copies of those agreements, at the time they are executed, are placed in the hands of all parties involved.

When working with a seller in a "For Sale By Owner" or a "Courtesy to Broker" situation, the licensee shall disclose who, if anyone, the licensee represents and who will pay a commission, if any.

(g) The licensee shall not acquire, rent, lease, or exchange an interest in or buy, rent, lease, or exchange for one's self, any member of the licensee's immediate family or brokerage firm, or any entity in which the licensee has any ownership interest, property listed with the licensee, licensee's brokerage firm, or listed with any other brokerage firm or licensee without making the true position known in writing to the listing owner or property owner. When offering for sale, lease, exchange, or rental, property which the licensee owns or has an interest in, the licensee shall fully inform the principal broker of the licensee's intention to sell, lease, exchange, or rent, and of the licensee's interest in the property. The licensee shall reveal the interest to the purchaser, lessee, or tenant in writing prior to accepting any offer.

(h) When acting as agent in the management of property, the licensee shall not accept any commission, rebate, or profit on expenditures for or from an owner, without the owner's and principal broker's knowledge and consent.

(i) The brokerage firm shall not submit or advertise property without written authorization, and in any offering the price quoted shall not be other than that agreed upon with the owner as the offering price.

(j) A licensee shall transmit immediately all written offers in any real estate transaction as defined in section 16-99-3.1 to the listing broker who has a written unexpired exclusive listing contract covering the property. Each written offer, upon receipt by the listing broker, shall be transmitted to the seller immediately. In the event that more than one formal written offer on a specific property is made before the owner has accepted an offer, any other formal written offer presented to the broker, whether by a prospective purchaser or another broker, shall be immediately transmitted to the owner for decision. If an offer or counter offer is rejected, the rejection shall be noted on the offer or counter offer, or in the event of seller's or buyer's neglect or refusal to do so, the broker for the rejecting party shall note the rejection on the offer or counter offer and a copy shall be returned immediately to the originator of the offer or counter offer.

(k) The brokerage firm shall not compensate a licensee of another brokerage firm in connection with a real estate transaction without paying directly or causing the payment to be made directly to the other brokerage firm. This requirement shall not apply in cases where the licensee or the licensee's estate is receiving compensation from a former brokerage firm for commission earned while the licensee was affiliated with that former brokerage firm, regardless of whether the licensee is on inactive status or on forfeited status or deceased.

(l) A licensee shall not place any sign or advertisement indicating a property is for sale, rent, lease, or exchange without the written authorization of the owner or seller and approval of the principal broker or broker-in-charge.

(m) There shall be a principal broker or one or more brokers-in-charge, or both, at the principal place of business, and one or more brokers-in-charge at a branch office who shall be immediately responsible for the real estate operations conducted at that place of business.

(n) A brokerage firm shall maintain a principal place of business located in this State at a business address registered with the commission from which the brokerage firm conducts business and where the brokerage firm's books and records are maintained.

(o) Prior to the time the principal broker or the broker-in-charge is absent from the principal place of business for more than thirty calendar days, and no other broker-in-charge is registered for the principal place of business, the principal broker shall submit to the commission a signed, written notification of the absence designating a temporary principal broker or temporary broker-in-charge, who shall acknowledge the temporary designation by signing the notification. In case of prolonged illness or death where the principal broker or broker-in-charge is unable to act, another broker shall be designated as the temporary principal broker or broker-in-charge within thirty days of the illness or death with appropriate notification and statement of a licensed medical doctor certifying to the commission the inability of the broker to practice.

A temporary principal broker or broker-in-charge arrangement shall not exceed a period of six months unless, prior to expiration of the initial six-month period, the principal broker requests and obtains, upon a showing of good cause for such extension, approval of the commission to extend the temporary arrangement for up to an additional six months.

(p) No licensee shall act as a broker, broker-salesperson, or salesperson for more than one brokerage firm except that this subsection shall not apply to those situations as described in subsection (o).

(q) Within ten days of receiving a written request, it shall be the responsibility of the principal broker or broker-in-charge of the brokerage firm to provide broker applicants formerly or presently employed by or associated with them with an accurate experience certification statement in the form provided by the commission attesting to the length of time that the broker applicant has been actively associated with or employed full-time by the brokerage firm. Falsification of information contained in the certification form shall be cause for revocation or suspension of the broker's or brokerage firm's license and of the salesperson's license if that person is a party to the falsification.

(r) A broker licensee shall not sit for any Hawaii real estate broker or salesperson examination during the period in which the licensee has a real estate broker license unless specifically permitted by the commission.

(s) A salesperson licensee shall not sit for any Hawaii real estate salesperson examination during the period in which the licensee has a real estate salesperson license unless specifically permitted by the commission.

(t) An exclusive listing shall state a definite termination date.

(u) The licensee shall not add to or modify the terms of an instrument previously signed or initiated by a party to a transaction without written consent of all the parties.

§16-99-3

(v) The licensee shall not convert other people's moneys to the licensee's own use.

(w) Violation of any part of this chapter may be cause for revocation or suspension of license. [Eff 12/26/74; am and ren §16-99-3, 4/27/81; am and comp 6/28/82; am and comp 3/3/84; am 9/29/86; am 7/11/87; am and comp 11/3/90; comp 2/25/91; am and comp 5/21/01; am and comp 12/19/16] (Auth: HRS §467-4) (Imp: HRS §467-14)

§16-99-3.1 Disclosure of agency. (a) As used in this section:

"Buyer" includes a vendee, lessee, party to an exchange, or grantee of an option.

"Buyer's agent" means a real estate broker who acts as the agent of the buyer.

"Contract between the buyer and seller" includes a purchase contract, an option, an offer to purchase, a sales contract, an offer to lease, or a lease.

"Listing brokerage firm" means the real estate brokerage firm that obtains a listing of real estate for sale, lease, exchange (residential, time share, industrial, or commercial) or for an interest in a residential cooperative housing corporation.

"Seller" includes a vendor, lessor, party to an exchange, or grantor of an option.

"Selling brokerage firm" means a real estate brokerage firm that acts in cooperation with a listing broker and finds and obtains a buyer in a transaction.

"Subagent" means a real estate brokerage firm or salesperson to whom an agent delegates agency powers.

"Transaction" means any sale, lease, rent, or exchange of real estate (residential, time share, industrial, or commercial) transaction or a sale or exchange of, or option involving, an interest in a residential cooperative housing corporation, but excluding leases for one year or less.

(b) At the time a listing brokerage firm obtains a listing, the listing brokerage firm shall disclose the following:

- (1) Whether the seller authorizes the listing brokerage firm to appoint seller's subagents through a multiple listing service or otherwise; and
- (2) Whether the seller authorizes the listing brokerage firm to share commissions with seller's subagents or buyer's agents.

The disclosure shall be in writing, dated, and signed by the seller and the listing brokerage firm.

(c) Prior to preparing any contract between the buyer and the seller, the following disclosure shall be made at least once to the buyer, in writing or orally:

(b), (c), and (d) or to obtain the written confirmation thereof shall subject the real estate brokerage firm and the real estate salesperson to disciplinary action by the commission.

(g) A licensee may not be the agent for both the buyer and the seller without obtaining the written consent of both the buyer and the seller. The written consent shall state that the licensee made a full disclosure of the type of representation the licensee will provide and shall briefly describe the type of representation the licensee will provide to the buyer and to the seller. A general statement in the consent signed by the buyer and seller that the licensee represents both buyer and the seller is not sufficient.

(h) A licensee representing a buyer shall disclose, orally or in writing, such agency to the seller, or the listing brokerage firm if there is a listing brokerage firm, before negotiations are initiated. The licensee shall disclose, orally or in writing, to the seller, or the listing brokerage firm if there is a listing brokerage firm, whether the licensee is, or intends to be, the buyer, before negotiations are initiated.

(i) If any change occurs in a transaction which makes a prior written or oral disclosure required by this section incomplete, misleading, or inaccurate, the licensee shall promptly make a revised written disclosure if the prior disclosure was in writing, or a revised oral disclosure if the prior disclosure was made orally, to the buyer or seller, or both, as the case may be. Any revised written disclosure shall include the date of the revised disclosure and be acknowledged separately by the signature of the buyer or seller, or both, as the case may be.

(j) The obligation of either the seller or buyer to pay compensation to a brokerage firm is not determinative of the agency relationship.

(k) Nothing in this chapter shall affect the validity of title to real property transferred, based solely on the reason that any licensee failed to conform to the provisions of this chapter. [Eff 7/11/87; am and comp 11/3/90; comp 2/25/91; am and comp 5/21/01; am and comp 12/19/16] (Auth: HRS §467-4) (Imp: HRS §467-14(12))

§16-99-4 Client's account; trust funds; properties other than funds. (a) Every brokerage firm that does not immediately place all funds entrusted to the brokerage firm in a neutral escrow depository, shall maintain a trust fund account in this State with some bank or recognized depository, which is federally insured, and place all entrusted funds therein. The trust fund account shall designate the principal broker as trustee and all trust fund accounts, including interest bearing accounts, shall provide for payment of the funds upon demand.

(b) Every brokerage firm shall retain for at least three years records of all trust funds which the brokerage firm has received. All records and funds shall be subject to inspection by the commission or its representative. The three-year requirement shall be for real estate license law purposes only. The brokerage firm may be required to keep records for a longer period of time for other purposes. The records shall be kept in Hawaii in accordance with standard accounting principles and shall clearly indicate the following:

- (1) Names of the persons from whom funds are received, for whom deposited, and to whom disbursed;
- (2) Dates of receipt, deposit, withdrawal, and disbursements, and amounts received, deposited, withdrawn, and disbursed;
- (3) Description of the trust fund and the purpose for its establishment;
- (4) Purposes for the money; and
- (5) Other pertinent information concerning the trust fund transactions.

(c) Trust fund accounts shall be either interest bearing or non-interest bearing, as agreed to in writing between the owner of funds and the principal broker or broker-in-charge receiving the funds and all other individuals who are parties to the real estate agreement. For interest bearing accounts, these same parties to the real estate agreement shall also agree in writing as to who shall pay for any early withdrawal penalty. The principal broker or broker-in-charge shall keep any interest belonging to others in the trust fund account and shall not commingle the accrued interest with the brokerage firm's, principal broker's, or broker-in-charge's general operating account or with the brokerage firm's, principal broker's, or broker-in-charge's own funds. All agreements relating to disbursements of the accrued interest from the client trust account shall be in writing, signed by the owner of the trust fund, the principal broker or broker-in-charge receiving the funds, and all other individuals who are parties to the real estate agreement. The interest accrued on any trust account deposit shall be disbursed in strict compliance with the written disbursement agreement. In the absence of a written agreement, any interest accrued shall be paid to the owner of the funds.

(d) Every brokerage firm shall deposit or place trust funds received into a neutral escrow depository or in a trust fund account with some bank or recognized depository, which is federally insured, by the next business day following their receipts. The neutral escrow depository shall be located in the same state where the property is located.

(e) Each principal broker or broker-in-charge who receives personal property, other than funds, in trust for other people, shall safeguard the property by placing the property by the next business day in a secure place located in the State.

(f) The principal broker or broker-in-charge shall retain for at least three years records of all personal property other than trust funds coming into the possession of the principal broker or broker-in-charge as trustee. All records of the personal property held in trust shall be subject to inspection by the commission or its representative and kept in the State at the place of business. The records shall clearly indicate the following:

- (1) Date of receipt of the personal property to be held in trust;
- (2) A description of and the type of trust property received;
- (3) From whom the personal property held in trust was received;
- (4) For whose benefit the personal property is being held in trust; and
- (5) The date and to whom the personal property is to be delivered.

(g) Property of others coming initially into the possession, custody, or control of a salesperson or broker-salesperson, to be held in trust for the benefit of the depositor or third persons, shall be received on behalf of the salesperson's or broker-salesperson's principal broker or broker-in-charge, and shall be delivered immediately by the next business day after receipt to the salesperson's or broker-salesperson's principal broker or broker-in-charge, unless the salesperson or broker-salesperson is instructed as to another time in writing by the depositor. The received property shall include but not be limited to: cash or checks as down payments, earnest money deposits, security deposits, and rental income; other checks payable to third persons or trust accounts; and personal property other than cash or checks.

(h) The principal broker or broker-in-charge shall not commingle client's funds with other moneys; provided, however, it shall not constitute commingling to:

- (1) Hold an uncashed check until acceptance of an offer when directed to do so by the buyer or offeror;
- (2) Hold an uncashed check after acceptance of an offer when directed to do so by the seller or offeree; or
- (3) Maintain a minimum amount in the client's account to keep the account open.

The fact that a check is being held in an uncashed form in paragraph (2) shall be specifically disclosed in writing to the seller or offeree before acceptance of the offer. Commingling of the client's funds with other moneys shall include, but not be limited to, keeping undisputed commissions, management fees, and other fees in the brokerage firm's client trust account beyond a reasonable time after those commissions, management fees, and other fees have been earned.

(i) A salesperson, broker-salesperson, or employee shall not handle trust properties in any way without the express written authorization of the person's principal broker or broker-in-charge. A principal broker or broker-in-charge may authorize a salesperson, broker-salesperson, or employee, in writing, to place trust properties on behalf of the brokerage firm anywhere the principal broker or broker-in-charge could place them, but shall not authorize any other disposition. A principal broker or broker-in-charge shall be held responsible for any trust properties the principal broker or broker-in-charge authorizes a salesperson, broker-salesperson, or employee to handle.

(j) A principal broker or broker-in-charge shall not allow any person to have custody or control of trust properties held by the principal broker or broker-in-charge except as provided in chapter 467, HRS, and this chapter.

(k) A principal broker may allow a broker-in-charge to have custody and control of trust properties on behalf of the principal broker. The principal broker and broker-in-charge shall be jointly responsible for any trust properties the principal broker authorizes the broker-in-charge to handle.

(l) Information about escrow accounts and records for real estate transactions under the real estate brokerage firm shall be retained for at least three years, subject to inspection by the commission or its representative at the place of business. [Eff 12/26/74; am and ren §16-99-4, 4/27/81; am and comp 6/28/82; am and comp 3/3/84; am 9/29/86; am and comp 11/3/90; comp 2/25/91; am and comp 5/21/01; am and comp 12/19/16] (Auth: HRS §467-4) (Imp: HRS §§467-1.6, 467-14)

§16-99-5 Notification and filing of names, addresses, and changes. (a) Each individual licensee shall file with the commission and shall notify the commission of any change in writing, within ten days of the change, on a form provided by the commission:

- (1) The licensee's legal name, residence address, and mailing address; and
- (2) The name and license number of the brokerage firm with whom the licensee is employed or associated.

 - (2) The address of each branch office;
 - (3) The name and license number of each licensee employed by or associated with the brokerage firm; and
 - (4) In the case of a partnership, corporation, or limited liability company, the names and addresses of the partners, officers and directors, or members and managers as the case may be.

(a) A continuing education provider shall submit all required reports and records by the deadline prescribed by this subchapter and by other designated administrative deadlines as from time to time may be imposed by the commission.

(b) When a provider fails to keep, produce, or timely submit any report or record as required by this section, the commission may do any or all of the following:

- (1) Suspend, after written notice, without a hearing, the issuance of blank forms of certificates of course completion;

(a) A real estate continuing education provider shall maintain for a period of at least four years records of course offerings (including names of instructors, dates of and locations of course offerings), student attendance, student registration, course completions, student evaluations, and personal information and resumes of its instructors and administrators. Each student record shall include, at a minimum, the following:

- (1) The student's name, address, real estate license number, license status, continuing education course completion information including course and instructor names, course offering number and date, and whether the student completed the course, course completion certificate number, and amount of approved clock hours of continuing education credits earned; and
- (2) Proof of actual course attendance including a verified sign-in and sign-out attendance sheet or a student certification statement in the case of a continuing education course offered by alternative delivery methods with interactive instructional techniques. The sign-in and sign-out sheet may be kept in another location other than the student's record, provided that reference to such location shall be made in each student's record. The name, address, and phone number of the individual who verified the student's attendance shall also be noted in the student's record.

(b) Within ten days of the end of any continuing education course or completion of course offered by alternative delivery methods, the continuing education provider shall issue to each student having completed the course a certificate of completion of course as prescribed by the commission. Except as provided in sections 16-99-91 and 16-99-92, the continuing education certificate of completion of course is valid only for the biennium license period in which the course was completed.

(c) Within ten days of the end of the course or completion of course offered by alternative delivery methods, the continuing education provider shall submit to the commission:

- (1) A listing of licensees who have completed the course with their issued course completion certificate numbers, course and instructor names, and course offering number and date, using a commission-prescribed electronic method, together with the prescribed number of copies as requested by the commission;

[Eff and comp 2/25/91; am and comp 5/21/01; am and comp 12/19/16] (Auth: HRS §§467-4, 467-4.5, 467-11.5) (Imp: HRS §§467-4.5, 467-11.5)

§16-99-113 Advertising. (a) For purposes of this subchapter, "advertising" means an announcement by a continuing education provider for the purpose of promoting itself as a provider or for soliciting students and includes, but is not limited to, all printed and visual communications, such as newspaper advertisements, direct public mailings, books and periodicals, television and radio commercials, and others.

(b) All advertisements soliciting students shall be of an announcement type listing, and minimally, include the name and address of the continuing education provider, the place where a catalogue or brochure may be obtained, a brief description of the course, a statement that the course can be used for satisfying continuing education requirements, and the number of course hours approved for continuing education.

(c) A continuing education provider shall keep on file at its place of business all advertising materials, subject to inspection and review by the commission upon written request.

(d) A continuing education provider shall not be advertised or be represented as having been "registered" with the commission until the provider has received written notification of its registration from the commission.

(e) All advertising materials and claims shall be free from misrepresentation and fraud.

(f) The commission, at any time, may require that a continuing education provider furnish proof of any of its advertising claims. Retractions of advertising claims may be ordered by the commission, with the retractions published in the same manner as the claims themselves.

(g) A continuing education provider shall be held strictly responsible for the acts and promises of its agents who solicit students. [Eff and comp 2/25/91; am and comp 5/21/01; comp 12/19/16] (Auth: HRS §§467-4, 467-4.5, 467-11.5) (Imp: HRS §§467-4.5, 467-11.5)

- (2) Use any name, other than the full name or the trade name registered with the commission, for advertising or publicity purposes;
- (3) Advertise that it is "recommended," "endorsed," "approved," or "accredited" by the commission. A continuing education provider may indicate that it is "registered" with the commission to conduct courses to assist the licensee in obtaining the necessary continuing education hours for license renewal;
- (4) Advertise that it is endorsed by business establishments, organizations, or individuals engaged in the kind of work for which training is given until written evidence of this fact is filed with the commission;

In limited circumstances, for reasons beyond the licensee's control, by way of example, but not limited to the example where a licensee is in the process of restoring a forfeited license, a provider may admit with a picture identification an individual, but shall not issue a certificate of completion of the course until the licensee produces a duly issued real estate license pocket card or commission issued real estate license restoration application. With or without any prior notice, the commission may conduct a review, evaluation, or investigation of a course offering or a registered continuing education provider's operations and performance. A review, evaluation, or investigation may be conducted by any means including but not limited to surveys, observations, physical inspections, and on-site monitoring, as well as interviews with providers, owners, administrators, instructors, and students. When the commission has reason to believe that a continuing education provider may be in violation of this subchapter or is otherwise failing to maintain reasonable operating standards, the commission may give appropriate written notice to the provider specifying the grounds for the violation and requiring that corrective action be taken by the provider within thirty days of the receipt of the notice. The provider may request a hearing of the alleged violations and requested corrective acts pursuant to chapter 91, HRS, and chapter 16-201.
