2) Tangee Lazarus

Chair Davis explained the difference between open and closed session and stated that when given the option, Ms. Lazarus chose to have the discussion regarding her application take place in open session. He asked Ms. Lazarus if she would like to address the Board.

Ms. Lazarus stated she felt it was important to hold this discussion in open session. One of her dreams is to bring massage therapy to hospice facilities. She has been volunteering with a hospice since 2005. She would like to bring massage to the caregivers taking care of loved ones in hospice. She said when natural disasters take place, people tend to focus on the basics but do not think of the human element. She believes massage is an important service.

Chair Davis said in the past, the profession worked hard to distance itself from prostitution. The Board has concerns because of her multiple convictions, including two prostitution convictions.

Ms. Lazarus noted that her two prostitution convictions took place in 2002 and 2008. She can understand the Board's concern because they have worked so hard to legitimize the profession. The fact is she does not want to go back to that life. She said before when she was younger, she was very judgmental. Now that she has experienced her own difficulties, she is more understanding of others.

Vice Chair Behnken acknowledged that perspective is essential.

Ms. Lazarus said that there are so many ways someone can utilize touch. People miss that. Without touch, society is much colder. She wants to use what she has learned to help others.

Vice Chair Behnken noted that the Board is looking for some assurance from Ms. Lazarus that prostitution will not happen again.

Chair Davis said that the Board is not trying to be judgmental, however, one of their main objectives is public protection. He asked if Ms. Lazarus is granted a license, would she be working at someone else's massage establishment or on her own.

Ms. Lazarus said she was planning to work for a company so she can work with others. She wants to be around people who know more. She noted that Jeffrey Dahmer, the serial killer, was murdered in prison and there was no outcry. She said prostitution is the same way. People look at you as less than you are and you don't get any respect.

Ms. Bath noted that Ms. Lazarus also has drug convictions. She said the Board understands that all applicants have a past, however, they are looking for reassurance that applicants are taking measures to ensure that the convictions don't happen again.

Ms. Lazarus said one thing that held her back was that she did not seek professional help. All her life, her behavior was slightly off but she was very resistant to getting help. Once she did and she was prescribed medication, it was the missing piece she needed. She said people can tell when she is not taking her medication. In the past, counselors told her she did not need more education, she needed stability. She said before she moved to Hawaii, four years was the longest she stayed in one place.

Ms. Bath asked if Ms. Lazarus has a support system in place now.

Ms. Lazarus said yes, she has a professional support system that provides tremendous help.

Chair Davis acknowledged Ms. Lazarus' support system and noted that Ms. Lazarus earlier said she has been volunteering with hospice. He asked if Ms. Lazarus could provide several letters of support and recommendation from those she is working with.

Ms. Lazarus said yes.

DAG Wong asked if she would be willing to agree to have current and future employers provide acknowledgement of her background for a specific period of time determined by the Board. She would be allowed to request that the agreement be lifted after that time period.

Ms. Lazarus said yes. She said she feels that her employers should be informed especially because in this day and age, people will find out anyway.

Vice Chair Behnken said she heard a quote before that it's not how someone handles success but how they handle failure that counts.

Ms. Lazarus said she appreciated the sentiment. She said that when she graduated from Harvard, she was named one of the graduates to most watch. She knows she has had difficulties in her past and she is a different person.

Chair Davis asked the Board if there were any other questions for Ms. Lazarus.

There were none.

3) Kathleen Newell

Chair Davis explained the difference between open and closed session and asked Ms. Newell if she would like the discussion regarding her application to take place in open or closed session.

Ms. Newell stated open session is fine.

Chair Davis noted that Ms. Newell's Hawaii license was issued in 1986 and expired in 2000. He asked if she has been practicing since her Hawaii license expired.

Ms. Newell said yes, she was licensed in Illinois, then here and back to Illinois and Colorado.

Chair Davis asked why she is requesting the exam waiver since it has been so long since she took the Hawaii exam.

Ms. Newell said it only occurred to her to ask for the waiver because it is included in the application instructions.

Chair Davis asked if she would be okay if the Board required her to take the exam.

Ms. Newell said only if she would be allowed to sit for the September exam.

Chair Davis noted that because of the exam provider's registration deadline, he is not sure if that is possible.

Ms. Newell stated that she thought she could just submit everything she previously provided originally but she could not. She noted that she has had difficulty providing the requested documentation since it was so long ago.

Chair Davis asked if she had any documentation which shows that Mr. King was accredited to teach.

Ms. Newell said such accreditation did not exist back then. There were no certificates or accreditation. She found out about available classes through word of mouth. Nothing else. She had a hard time getting the letter from Bonnie Fish.

Chair Davis stated it was not really a letter, more like a handwritten note.

Ms. Newell stated it was enough to fulfill the AMTA's continuing education requirement.

Chair Davis asked if the AMTA accepted Ms. Fish's note.

Ms. Newell said yes. She stated she cannot get any additional documents. Mr. King has passed. Others have also.

At 11:08 a.m., DAG Wong left the meeting room.

Chair Davis asked if she had any education taken more recently.

Ms. Newell said when she left, she moved to Illinois for a year. She took an extensive myofascial course from Mr. King. She set up a course of study at the University Without Walls. She also took a cadaver class that she does not have documents for.

Chair Davis asked the Board if they have any other questions for Ms. Davis.

There were none.

11) Chiemi Trias

Chair Davis again explained the difference between open and closed session and asked Ms. Trias if she would like the discussion regarding her application to take place in open or closed session.

Ms. Trias stated she is okay with the discussion taking place in open session.

Chair Davis stated that the Board requested that Ms. Trias appear because there was some confusion when the Board reviewed the documents she submitted regarding her fines. The court documents state that Ms. Trias had a $30 fee and a $150 fine, however, Ms. Trias provided additional receipts for other amounts.

Ms. Trias explained that she was told to provide proof that all outstanding fines and fees were paid. She wasn't sure if the Board was talking about just the court case or all outstanding fines. The other receipts are for a bench warrant and other things related to the same offense.

Vice Chair Davis noted multiple receipts in amounts like $164, $293, $500, etc.

Ms. Trias said she was pulled over because her tail light was out. There were also other charges, all associated with her DUI offense.

Vice Chair Behnken asked if she was pulled over because her tail light was out and then was charged with DUI also.

Ms. Trias said yes.

Chair Davis stated that the Board is trying to make sure all the information provided matches up. It appeared to the Board that Ms. Trias only had $180 in fines and fees, therefore, they were concerned that the other receipts were possibly for other offenses that had not been reported. He asked if there were any other questions for Ms. Trias.

There were none.

- b. In the Matter of the Massage Therapist License of Susan M. Schattauer-Medeiros (MAS 2018-44-L) – Settlement Agreement Prior to Filing of Petition for Disciplinary Action and Board's Final Order; Exhibit "A"

After discussion, it was moved by Vice Chair Behnken, seconded by Ms. Bath, and unanimously carried to approve the above-referenced settlement agreement.

At 12:35 p.m., the Board moved out of Chapter 91, HRS, and returned to its regular order of business.

The Board returned to its regular order of business.

3. Approval of

4. Election of Officers:

There being no nominations, upon a motion by Ms. Bath, seconded by Ms. Hagerman, it was voted on and unanimously carried to reappoint Chair Davis and Vice Chair Behnken to the position of Chair and Vice Chair.

5. New Business: a. Inquiry from J. Brent Koffman to review logo for compliance with HRS 452-23

The Board reviewed a letter from Mr. Koffman in which he states that he and his wife have learned a new style of massage called Sarga Bodywork which employs the use of feet (mostly one foot at a time) and a "Sarga-Cloth" which is attached under the table and helps control the pressure used as well as balance. He is requesting that the Board either make an exception to HRS §452-23(a)(4) since this type of massage utilizes the feet instead of hands or if not, he is asking for suggestions or guidance on how they may advertise and still be in compliance.

After some discussion, it was the consensus of the Board to direct EO Kramer to inform Mr. Koffman that HRS 452-23(a)(4) states in part "... it shall be a violation of this chapter for any person to advertise:...(4) By using in any mass distribution, print advertisements such as newspaper advertisements, or telephone directory listings, pictures depicting the human form other than hands, wrists, and forearms;" therefore, the use of the photo provided by Mr. Koffman to advertise massage therapy services would be a violation of the law. The Board suggested that Mr. Koffman describe the technique in writing or use a picture which meets the requirements of the advertising section of the law.

b. Inquiry from Carlton Chun regarding whether Myofascial Release falls under the definition of massage

The Board reviewed an email from Mr. Chun which states in part "[m]y client has asked me to inquire whether myofascial release is considered "massage" by the DCCA, such that a massage therapy license is needed. Myofascial release has become more popular as an adjunct procedure to stretching exercises to increase muscle extensibility prior to a workout. Many personal trainers incorporate myofascial work into their workout routines. Initially it started out with foam rolling, and has now progressed to also include the use of different apparatuses such as lacrosse balls, the Theracane, the Stick, the Hyperice Hypervolt Device, etc. The majority of trainers who do this type of work do not have a massage license nor do they consider what they do "massage". Myofascial release is usually part of the exercise training regimen. With this overbroad definition of massage, is a personal exercise trainer prohibited from using myofascial release instruction and techniques with their clients if they do not have a massage therapy license?"

Vice Chair Behnken said in most cases, the personal trainers are not manipulating their client's soft tissue themselves. Instead, they show their client how to use the equipment on their own body.

Chair Davis stated that as long as the personal trainers are only instructing their clients on how to use the devices on themselves and not advertising or promoting themselves as massage therapists, he believes no license is required.

Ms. Bath said she does not see how personal trainers use myofascial release.

After some discussion, upon a motion by Vice Chair Behnken, seconded by Ms. Bath, it was voted on and unanimously carried to direct the EO to inform Mr. Chun that the Board understands and is aware that other practitioners such as physical therapists and personal trainers practice myofascial release which requires the use of various devices. It is the Board's informal interpretation that a Hawaii massage therapist license is not required if an individual is demonstrating or instructing clients on the use of the devices. A Hawaii massage therapist license is required if an individual is manipulating the soft tissue or operating these devices on a client for compensation.

This is an informal interpretation for informational and explanatory purposes only and is not an official opinion or decision and therefore is not to be viewed as binding on the Board.

6. Applications:

a. Ratifications

Upon a motion by Vice Chair Behnken, seconded by Ms. Hagerman, it was voted on and unanimously carried to approve the attached ratification list with Chair Davis, Vice Chair Behnken and Ms. Hagerman voting "yes" and Ms. Bath abstaining. The motion passed.

8. Unfinished Business:

a. Rule Revisions – Title 16, Chapter 84, Hawaii Administrative Rules

The Board deferred discussion on this matter due to time constraints.

Chair Davis asked if the Board could schedule a meeting prior to the October 31st meeting.

After some discussion, by consensus, the Board determined that the next meeting would be held on September 26, 2018.

9. Next Meeting:

Wednesday, September 26, 2018
9:00 a.m.
Queen Liliuokalani Conference Room
King Kalakaua Building
335 Merchant Street, First Floor
Honolulu, Hawaii 96813

10. Adjournment: With no further business to discuss, Chair Davis adjourned the meeting at 12:55 p.m.
