

REFERENCES
LANDSCAPE ARCHITECT STATE EXAM (Hawaii Plant Materials)

Although not a part of the examination, candidates should have knowledge of the Hawaii Administrative Rules (Chapter 16-115) and the Hawaii Revised Statutes (Chapter 464) which may be downloaded from the following websites:

Rules: <http://hawaii.gov/dcca/pvl/hrs>

Statutes: <http://hawaii.gov/dcca/pvl/har>

In addition, suggested reading materials include the following:

1. Atlas of Hawaii, second edition. Department of Geography, University of Hawaii i, University of Hawaii Press, 1983. (topics: Climate, Geology, Geography)
2. Growing Native Hawaiian Plants. Heidi Bornhorst, The Bess Press, 1996.
3. Hawaiian Forest Plants. Mark Merlin, Pacific Guide Books, 1995
4. In Gardens of Hawaii. Marie Neal, Bishop Museum Press, 1965
5. La'au Hawaii -Traditional Hawaiian Use of Plants. Isabella Aiona Abbott, Bishop Museum Press, 1992
6. Manual of the Flowering Plants of Hawaii. Warren L. Wagner, Derral R Herbst, S.H. Schmer, University of Hawaii Press, Bishop Museum Press, 1990
7. Palms Throughout the World. David Jones, Smithsonian Institute Press, Washington D.C. 1995
8. Plants of Hawaii National Parks. Otto Degener, Braun-Brumfield, Inc. 1930
9. Plants in Hawaiian Culture. Beatrice H. Krauss, University of Hawaii Press, 1993
10. Land Use Ordinance. Dept. of Land Utilization, City and County of Honolulu , April 1995. Call (808) 768-3765. Available at www.honolulu.gov/csd/mrc.html

In addition, for your information, the following are commonly used endemic, indigenous, and Polynesian introduced plants for landscaping:

Common Name	Botanical Name
'Akia	Wikstroemia spp.
'A'ali'i	Dodonaea viscosa
Alahe'e	Psydrax odorata
'Ape	Alocasia macrorrhiza
Coconut Palm	Cocos nucifera
Hala	Pandanus tectorius
Hapu'u	Cibotium glaucum
Hau	Hibiscus tiliaceus
Ho'awa	Pittosporum spp.
'Ilima	Sida fallax
Kamani	Calophyllum inophyllum
Koa	Acacia koa

Kou	Cordia subcordata
Kukui	Aleurites moluccana
Laua'e	Microsorium spectrum
Loulu Palm	Pritchardia spp.
Milo	Thespesia populnea
Naio	Myoporum sandwicense
Native Hibiscus	Hibiscus spp.
Naupaka	Scaevola sericea
'Ohi'a lehua	Metrosideros polymorpha
Taro	Colocasia esculenta
Ti	Cordia terminalis
Wiliwili	Erythrina sandwicensis

No reference materials, scratch sheets, books or notes may be brought into the examination room