Seeing none, the Chair asked for a motion in regard to the open session minutes.

Upon a motion by Mr. Kuo, seconded by Ms. Boyer, it was voted on and unanimously carried to approve the minutes of the March 7, 2024 meeting as circulated.

The Chair deferred the approval of the executive session minutes for the March 7, 2024 meeting.

The Chair announced the next agenda item as Ms. Boyer's report of her attendance at the NCSBN's Midyear meeting as well as the recommendations from the March 3, 2024 Education Committee meeting and asked if there was anyone attending wishing to testify on this agenda item.

Report by Karen Boyer:

Report on Attendance at NCSBN Midyear Meeting

Ms. Boyer reported on her attendance at the NCSBN Midyear Meeting, March 11 -14, 2024 in Atlanta, Georgia:

Day 1 – Attended the NLC Mid-year meeting at which time Fred Knight from Arkansas provided updates on some of the articles they are working on mostly to strengthen the language and educate nurses of the requirement if the primary state of residency changes, the licensee has 60 days to change their primary state of residency.

They are also trying to strengthen the language for individuals under investigation or the process for criminal background checks so that between states it's a little more clear and/or the communication is more timely.

Day 2 – Leadership Day: Reimagining discipline, Maryanne Victoria Priola, PsyD presenter. Reported on how stressful the nursing workplace is right now and how it has increased during the last 5 years and so when Board's are presented with cases of negligence or malpractice, things that fall out of normal practice that we try to imagine the workplace that the nurses are working in, i.e. staffing shortages, patient population more challenging, nurses being monitored for productivity on a regular basis.

Ms. Boyer referred to the National Service Organization who receives the malpractice claims against nurses and that 24% failed to follow nursing practice, 32% boundary (judgement) violations; 9% patient abuse; failure to treat or care 9%; and documentation errors or omissions close to 10%. Dr. Priola also provided clinical diagnosis related to human errors and risky behaviors including anxiety and depression and some PTSD or concurrent substance use or abuse.

She reported that when we have people that we are not sure of their functioning, whether it's cognitive, psychosocial or combination, to consider a clinical evaluation to help determine if the nurse may have some of these personality disorders and/or reckless behavior. The anti-social type such as criminal activity, lying, conning, impulsive, lack remorse, highly versatile, is probably the most dangerous type of nurse or healthcare practitioner to have. She also reported that Boards were encouraged to reflect on our own biases, implicit, explicit and hidden and "availability bias" which is based on your own experiences

Day 3 – Regulatory Day – Peggy Benson, Alabama wrote a grant regarding 15 – 16 unregulated healthcare providers practicing in their state, i.e. psych techs, nurse aides, medication aides, nursing students (paid roles) and that she's trying to get nursing support technicians (NST-C) certified where she can standardized the curriculum, testing and certification, level I and level II.

The Model Act and Rules – Maryann Alexander, NCSBN, led a discussion on deleting or amending to be in compliance with the ADA, "mentally and physically competent to practice nursing, the Board may issue a license to the applicant."; delete "for the possession, use, or sale of any controlled substances" in regard to reporting requirements.

Operation Nightingale – Jim Cleghorn, NCSBN, provided an update on Operation Nightingale and that how states are responsible for reviewing applications received and the multiple lists of individuals who are on the FBI lists and that there have been a few licenses that have been rescinded. He also wanted to emphasize that if the nurse had a fraudulent under grad, and then had gone to a graduate school, that they are both invalid.

The Chair clarified that the undergrad transfer credits would have had to be considered.

Mr. Kuo asked if that was the same recommendation ASN to BSN degrees.

Ms. Boyer stated that wasn't addressed however, if the ASN transcript is considered fraudulent and was used towards the BSN degree, then that should be considered.

Day 4 - Education Day – AACN essentials and that UH@Manoa has been on this for a couple of years, so through the consortium, they hold regular meetings regarding AACN essentials and the competencies associated with that.

Lastly, Ms. Boyer reported on remote proctoring. She related that Steve Viger, NCSBN, using artificial intelligence, in the future, people will be taking their licensure exams in their homes that would require certain software for facial recognition, 360 environmental scan, no talking, drinks or gum, they are watching your eye movement, hands, key stroke. Test security is the priority.

The Chair announced the next agenda item as the Executive Officer's Report.

Executive Officer's Report:

Amendments to Hawaii Administrative Rules ("HAR") Chapter 89, Relating to Nurses – Proposed Amendments to HAR §16-89-22, Pertaining to Temporary Permits – Board's Discussion of Public Hearing and Decision

EO Teshima recapped the testimony from the public hearing that preceded the Board meeting this morning.

There were 5 testimonies submitted from the following individuals/organizations:

- Healthcare Association of Hawaii – Paige Heckathorn Choy, Associate Vice President, Government Affairs
- Queens' Health System – Jacce Mikulanec, Director, Government Relations
- Hawaii Pacific Health – Amy Thomas, System Chief Nurse Executive
- Hawaii State Center for Nursing – Laura Reichhardt, Director
- Hawaii Association of Professional Nurses (HAPN) – Jeremy Creekmore, HAPN President

Although there was no testimony in clear "opposition", the main and common concerns and recommendations from the Healthcare Association of Hawaii, Queens' Health System and Hawaii Pacific Health were:

1. That the updated rules would decouple the temporary license application from a full licensure application. Under the current rules, any licensure application submitted for a temporary license is granted as a step towards full licensure. By decoupling these two processes, it will add expense and time to individual nurses and healthcare organizations—especially smaller organizations such as home health agencies or clinics.

And recommended that any temporary licensure process continue to provide an option by which a nurse could also apply for full licensure at the same time, creating a more efficient process by which a nurse would only have to apply for a license one time.

2. The license will only be valid for six months. This means that a nurse could have to apply for a temporary license multiple times, which would increase costs to the individual nurse or healthcare organization.

And recommended allowing an option so that any temporary licensure process would lead directly into a full licensure process so that only one application has to be completed would be ideal.

3. That any proposed rules must contain a deadline by which a temporary process is approved. Without any type of deadline, there will be no material improvement to the issuance of temporary permits in a timely fashion.

And recommend that a deadline of ten days be inserted into the proposed rules to ensure the issuance of a temporary license in a timely fashion.

Furthermore, "Many of the suggestions that we are making above would reflect language that made it through both the State Senate and State House in SB 63, Relating to Nurses. This legislation represented a consensus position between agencies, providers, health plans, and other key stakeholders because it addressed the core issues related to the temporary nurse licensure process. We would support the adoption of the key changes outlined above that are included in SB 63 in order to ensure an efficient, expeditious temporary licensure program that will support nurses and organizations big and small in the healthcare industry."

EO Teshima stated that in regarding to the language in SB 63, she compared the language in SB 63, SD2, HD3 to the language in the proposed rules and the requirements are either the same or very similar except for the 10-day processing deadline.

The Chair asked the members if there was any questions or discussion.

There being none, EO Teshima further explained the following in response to the testimonies provided at the public hearing:

Prior to COVID, when an individual applied for a temporary nurse permit, because the temporary permit was under the "endorsement" requirements, i.e. Nursys verification, CBC & NPDB, applicants were submitting both the temporary permit and permanent license application even though they were not required to do so, it's just that the requirements were the same.

Nothing prohibits an individual from applying for a temporary nurse permit to also apply for a permanent license.

With the proposed amendments, the requirements for a temporary nurse permit and permanent license will be different. The only "common" requirement for the temporary nurse permit and a permanent license requirement is the Nursys license verification. The application for the permanent license will still require the NPDB and CBC in addition to the Nursys license verification.

The proposed rules also recognizes a multistate license, which was also included in SB 63.

Understanding the concern regarding the processing time of applications, including temporary Nurse permits, however, due to a severe staffing shortage, we are hoping that with the new requirements, the process for the issuance of a temporary nurse permit will be more efficient.

Regarding the recommendation to include a 10-day processing time for the issuance of a temporary nurse permit.

We would not be able to guarantee a specific processing time due to variables such as staffing issues, pandemic, natural disaster or other issues beyond our control that would prevent us from issuing a temporary nurse permit, however, based on what we are proposing, other requirements have been deleted, i.e. National Practitioner Databank – Self Query Report and Criminal Background Check that would help to streamline the process.

After COVID when staff was working in the office and remotely, we were unable to process temporary permits as the demand for nurse licenses took precedence.

Prior to the COVID pandemic, the number of temporary permits issued:

2017 (December only)	35
2018 (Jan-Dec)	360
2019 (Jan-Dec)	209
2020 (Jan-Mar)	36

Averaging about 30 temporary permits a month for various facilities with processing time of 3-5 working days at a cost of $50 and valid for 3 months. The proposed rules extends the period for the temporary permit to 6 months. So if an individual accepts an extended assignment and wish to continue working in this State, this gives them ample time to apply for a permanent license.

The Chair wanted to clarify that the presumption that the existing process is that an application for a temporary permit leads automatically to an application for regular license but that's not the case.

EO Teshima said yes.

The Chair stated it's just that the requirements for the temporary permit and endorsement application are identical, so we're not actually "decoupling" anything.

EO Teshima said that's correct.

The Chair added that there also appears to be a presumption that you had to apply for a temporary permit in-person, but that is not the case. So that there is nothing in the current or proposed rules that would require applying in-person.

EO Teshima said that's correct, that was never a requirement. She also added that besides the Nursys verification for a temporary nurse permit, the other requirement that is the same as the current requirement is that the Hawaii employer still needs to sign the temporary permit application and that with our new licensing system, we may be able to issue it through our licensing system and keep track instead of issuing it manually.

Ms. Boyer asked if the temporary nurse permit will be available to file online.

EO Teshima said no because you will need the Hawaii employer to sign the application.

The Chair asked the members if there were any questions or further discussion.

Seeing none, the Chair called for a motion to approve the revisions to the administrative rules for nursing related to temporary permits.

Upon a motion by Mr. Aratani, seconded by Ms. Shields, it was voted on and unanimously carried to approve the revisions to the administrative rules for nursing related to temporary permits.

EO Teshima wanted to clarify that the Board is not revising the draft for which the public hearing was held but approving the proposed draft without revisions recommended by testifiers.

The Chair stated that is correct.

Governor Green Issues Tenth Proclamation Relating to Wildfires

EO Teshima reported that on or about March 5, 2024, Governor Green issued his 10th emergency proclamation (EP) relating to wildfires that continues to include a waiver the licensure requirements for out-of-state nurses, LPNs, RNs and APRNs, to practice in this State without a Hawaii license. The 10th EP also continues to provide civil liability for health care professionals, including nurses licensed pursuant to chapter 457, who in good faith comply completely with all state and federal orders regarding the wildfire emergency, for any death or injury to persons, or property damage allegedly to have been caused by any act or omission by the health care professional while rendering assistance to the State, unless it is established that such death or injury to persons, or property damage was caused by willful misconduct, gross negligence, or recklessness of the health care professional.

Random Audit – Status Report

EO Teshima reported that there are 2 boxes and that she is almost done with reviewing one of the boxes and should complete review of the submissions by the May meeting.

Reports:

Hawai'i State Center for Nursing – Laura Reichhardt, Executive Director

Ms. Reichhardt reported:

- The workforce supply report out by the end of the month. The data tables are available but the supplier report always has additional insights and a reflection about the overall environment;
- Progress in relation to the nurse residency programs and specialty transition to practice initiatives. They continue to have nurses train under the funding they received for good jobs and the DOH Opioid Branch and that it is significantly changing the professional environment in our State because for so long if you wanted to be a specialty nurse you had to go out of state so this is really going to be a strong retention tool;
