Chair's Report: The Chair announced that the Commission may move into executive session to consider and evaluate personal information relating to individuals applying for licensure in accordance with section 92-5(a) (1), HRS, and/or to consult with the Commission's attorney on questions and issues pertaining to the Commission's powers, duties, privileges, immunities, and liabilities in accordance with Section 92-5(a) (4), HRS.

Executive
Officer's Report

The Executive Officer (EO) informed the Commissioners that the original applications, with any original associated documents considered at the meeting, were available for review.

EO reported that the Proposed Amendments to Chapter 99 Rulemaking had been scheduled for a hearing on March 19, 2014, before the Small Business Regulatory Review Board (SBRRB). Due to a lack of quorum, the matter was then deferred to the SBRRB hearing on April 16, 2014. However, the subject matter was subsequently taken off the April 16, 2014 SBRRB agenda due to an anticipated lack of quorum.

Furthermore, EO informed the Commission that the SBRRB advised the Real Estate Branch staff (REB) that they could continue along the administrative rule adoption procedures and proceed with a request to conduct a public hearing on the proposed amendments.

Chairperson Senter inquired if SBRRB will have another opportunity to review the proposed amendments. Chairperson Senter did not have any objections to proceeding, however, she did not want the process to be delayed in the future due to the possibility that SBRRB may then have opinion/comments or recommended changes to the Chapter 99 rules.

Deputy Attorney General Shari Wong indicated that SBRRB would have another opportunity to review the proposed amendments. DAG Wong concurred with the advancement to the next step, as she had spoken with the assigned SBRRB deputy attorney general. It was recommended that REB proceed to the next step in the administrative rules adoption procedure, after two (2) failed attempts to have the proposed amendments heard before SBRRB.

Minutes of Previous Meeting

Upon a motion by Commissioner Sherley, seconded by Commissioner Arakaki, it was voted on and unanimously carried to accept the minutes of the March 28, 2014 meeting.

Licensing
Ratification:

Upon a motion by Commissioner Arakaki, seconded by Commissioner Gendrano, it was voted on and unanimously carried to ratify the March 28, 2014 list.

Licensing
Applications:

EO informed the Commissioners that the information provided to the Commissioners is related only to the issue that is before the Commission for consideration. The other materials submitted are available for the Commissioners review should they desire to review it. If the applicants have an issue, which is personal in nature, they have the right to request that their application be considered in executive session.

Robert Neuman

This application was previously deferred at the March 28, 2014 REC meeting, with the REC requesting the appearance of Mr. Neuman.

Mr. Neuman was present to answer any questions that the Commissioners may have regarding his application for a real estate salesperson license.

The Chair asked Mr. Neuman if he wished to have his application considered in executive session. He declined the offer.

Mr. Neuman stated that he was under the misunderstanding that a property owner in Hawaii can manage its own properties, without a real estate license, as long as the owner does not manage properties for other owners. The statute Mr. Neuman misinterpreted was HRS §467-2, which states, "the provisions requiring licensing as a real estate broker or salesperson shall not apply: To any individual who, as owner of any real estate or acting under power of attorney from the owner, performs any of the acts enumerated in the definitions of real estate broker and real estate salesperson with reference to the real estate; ..."

Mr. Neuman previously held real estate broker licenses on the east coast, New York and New Jersey. In these jurisdictions, property owners are legally allowed to manage their own properties without a real estate license.

In 2003, Mr. Neuman was served with a Complaint and sued by the State of Hawaii for managing property without a real estate license. Mr. Neuman admits that until he was served with the Complaint, he was not aware that he was not in compliance. He has purchased properties through an LLC entity since 1989. The subject complaint was settled and a judgment of $15,000 was fully satisfied.

Mr. Neuman started the real estate licensing process and would like to obtain a real estate license in Hawaii to be in compliance.

Commissioner Gendrano inquired if there was an incident that occurred in 2003 which alerted RICO to conduct an investigation and file a Complaint against Mr. Neuman. Mr. Neuman responded that his tenants at that time may have made a complaint that triggered an investigation which resulted in the subject Complaint. Mr. Neuman stated that he had evicted the tenants.

Commissioner Lee commented that his LLC included a name, Mikemi Realty. Mr. Neuman responded that his tenants may have filed a complaint in regards to his LLC including the word "realty", whereas, Mr. Neuman did not possess a real estate license. Mr. Neuman also shared that in New York and New Jersey, it was common practice and legal to include the word "realty" and/or an Individual's name in the LLC name without requiring a real estate license.

Upon a motion by Commissioner Sherley, seconded by Commissioner Arakaki, it was voted on and unanimously carried to take this matter under advisement.

James S. Singleton

Chair Senter recused herself from discussion and voting on this matter and left the meeting. Chair Senter appointed Commissioner Gendrano, Chair Pro Tem.

Mr. Singleton was present to answer any questions that the Commissioners may have regarding his application for preliminary decision for a real estate broker license.

The Chair Pro Tem asked Mr. Singleton if he wished to have his application considered in executive session. He accepted the offer.

Executive Session

Upon a motion by Commissioner Sherley, seconded by Commissioner Cobb, it was voted on and unanimously carried to enter into executive session, pursuant to section 92-5(a)(1), HRS, "To consider and evaluate personal information, relating to individuals applying for professional or vocational licenses cited in section 26-9 or both;" and pursuant to section 92-5(a)(4), HRS, "To consult with the board's attorney on questions and issues pertaining to the board's powers, duties, privileges, immunities, and liabilities."

Upon a motion by Commissioner Faulkner, seconded by Commissioner Arakaki, it was voted on and unanimously carried to move out of executive session.

Upon a motion by Commissioner Faulkner, seconded by Commissioner Arakaki, it was voted on and unanimously carried to take this matter under advisement.

Chair Senter returned to the meeting.

Committees and Program of Work:

Condominium Review Committee – CPR Registration and Developer's Public Reports

Option to Renew Contract For Up to Two Fiscal Years for Professional Services of Condominium Consultants.

Executive Session:

Upon a motion by Commissioner Cobb, seconded by Commissioner Faulkner, it was voted on and unanimously carried to enter into executive session, pursuant to section 92-5(a)(1), HRS, "To consider and evaluate personal information, relating to individuals applying for professional or vocational licenses cited in section 26-9 or both;" and pursuant to section 92-5(a)(4), HRS, "To consult with the board's attorney on questions and issues pertaining to the board's powers, duties, privileges, immunities, and liabilities."

Upon a motion by Commissioner Sherley, seconded by Commissioner Cobb, it was voted on and unanimously carried to move out of executive session.

Upon a motion by Commissioner Gendrano, seconded by Commissioner Faulkner, it was voted on and unanimously carried to exercise its option to renew the contracts for up to two fiscal years for Professional Services of Condominium Consultants: Glenn Adachi, Kenneth Chong, Clay Chapman Iwamura Pulice & Nervell, Terry Day, Imanaka Asato, Jewell & Krueger, Kiefer & Garneau, Calvin Kimura, Michael Sakai, Lloyd Sodetani, and Grant Tanimoto.

Condominium Project Registration Reminders 2014-1 dated 3/6/2014, issued by staff, pursuant to §16-201-92, HAR.

This matter was previously deferred at the April 7, 2014 Condominium Committee Meeting.

SEO disclosed that REB Staff had received a letter in response to Reminders 2014-1 from Mitchell A. Imanaka, Esq., Managing Principal, Imanaka Asato LLC, and that Chair Senter is a partner in Imanaka Asato LLC. Deputy Attorney General Wong acknowledged SEO's disclosure and questioned Chair Senter if she was able to participate in discussions on this matter and able to exercise independent professional judgment as a Commissioner. Chair Senter confirmed that she is willing and able.

Rick Kiefer, Esq., attorney for Cades Schuttle, was present. James (Jimmy) Kobashigawa, Executive Officer for the Engineers, Architects, Surveyors, and Landscape Architects (EASLA) of the Board of the Professional Vocational Licensing Division(PVL) was also present to explain the scope of the respective licenses for EASLA professionals. Michael Sakai, Esq. who is currently a Real Estate Branch condominium consultant, and an attorney who represents developers, was also present.

HRS §514B-34, Condo Map

Statute requirement, HRS §514B-34 states that the condo map is to be certified by a licensed architect, engineer, or surveyor who is certifying to his or her best knowledge, that the condo map is consistent with what was filed with the Department of Planning and Permitting (DPP) when the building permit was submitted for approval.

Mr. Sakai, shared that the certification of the condominium map is done by a "team" on the project, not necessarily the individual who signs off on the certification and it is reasonable to understand that the person who does the certification has consulted with the members of the team. Mr. Sakai further commented that the statute does not require the Commission to evaluate who is eligible to sign and certify the condominium map, just that it is a licensed architect, engineer or surveyor. If the professional is licensed, the professional meets the qualification, therefore, the authority to certify a condominium map.

Specialist Yee indicated that there are concerns regarding the departures from practice and that it is not consistent with the law. Mr. Kiefer stated that it is a flaw in the interpretation, as he does not feel there is any departure from the law.

Commissioner Arakaki inquired if it would be reasonable for a surveyor to certify and also provide in writing that he/she consulted with the architect, etc. Mr. Kiefer felt that it was not necessary.

Specialist Yee then called EASLA Executive Officer Kobashigawa to the table and asked for a basic job description of an Architect, Engineer, and a Surveyor. Per EO Kobashigawa, architects and engineers usually involved in the design, and surveyors are involved in establishing the parameters/boundaries of the project. Specialist Yee asked EO Kobashigawa, if in his opinion, a surveyor has enough credentials to do the condominium map certification, which then filed at the Bureau of Conveyance (BOC). EO Kobashigawa stated that he is unfamiliar with the statutory requirements under Chapter 514B for condominium maps, and responded that he did not feel that a surveyor was sufficient.

Chair Senter described that a condominium map is a simplified version of the detailed building plans filed at DPP for building permit approval. The condominium map is more reader friendly and includes information such as unit, unit number, and square footage of unit, as required by statute.

EO Kobashigawa felt that a surveyor is not required to have other skills other than that of setting the boundaries. An architect, more than likely, may acquire the skills set to certify a condominium map as well as specialized engineers such as a civil engineer, a mechanical engineer and an electrical engineer.

DAG Wong specifically asked EO Kobashigawa if he felt a land surveyor, in general, is able to certify a condominium map. EO Kobashigawa felt that based on job scope, a land surveyor is not required to have such expertise and may not be qualified to certify a condominium map.

Commissioner Arakaki felt it would be better to handle on a case-by-case basis, based on the actual project and available field of expertise working on the particular project. There were no further questions for EO Kobashigawa.

Mr. Keifer felt that the current statute works and should continue be handled on a case-by-case basis. Specialist David Grupen inquired of Mr. Kiefer, as a condominium consultant, if he felt that there were no issues with consumer protection and felt that "consumer is completely protected" with the option of a surveyor having the authority to certify a condominium map.

Mr. Sakai informed the commission that the condominium map is for record purposes only and sufficient to meet the requirements of the condominium law. Based on his professional experience, project size usually dictates who signs the condominium map. The professional, whether a surveyor, engineer, or architect, should have the authority to evaluate the scope of work, do due diligence, and then decide individually what they are comfortable in signing.

Specialist Linster commented that the signature of an architect and/or engineer is required on the submittals to DPP for a building permit. The condominium map is then certified by a surveyor, and later submitted with the "as built" to DPP upon project completion. EO Ino also questioned whether a surveyor is able to review a condominium map, and certify that its information is consistent with the information filed at DPP. Mr. Sakai again indicated that it should be left up to the professional on what he/she is comfortable in signing/certifying.

Commissioner Gendrano asked Mr. Sakai if it is a common practice for developers to obtain a building permit prior to producing a condominium map. Mr. Sakai responded that it is the process for some projects, but not all. Often times, condominium maps are drawn, in parallel to obtaining and/or submitting the construction plan for the building permit. Often, the engineer, architect, and surveyor reviews and/signs the documents separately. Commissioner Gendrano suggested that perhaps make an internal checklist a requirement, in addition to the certification of a condominium map.

HRS §514B-5, Conformance with county land use laws

Mr. Kiefer stated that the laws are not clear and it is difficult to expect developers to provide a statement to confirm conformity with county land use laws. The restrictions were placed when the location was identified as an agriculture parcel. The condominium property regime has since been created.

HRS §514B-57 (Developer's Public Report)

Mr. Kiefer expressed that it was counterproductive to include a summary in the Developer's Public Report. Readers may rely on such summary and bypass specific information further explained in detail in the body of the report.

HRS §514B-92 (Purchaser Deposits)

Mr. Kiefer explained the condominium law in place to trust that an escrow company is withholding a purchaser's deposit and developers usually have said funds to cover project costs. Escrow companies bound by statutes and have legal counsel to provide assistance/guidance. In addition, Hawaii laws would "trump" any loan agreement documents.

Upon a motion by Commissioner Gendrano, seconded by Commissioner Faulkner, it was voted on and unanimously moved to withdraw the Condominium Project Registration Reminders 2014-1 dated 3/6/14, issued by staff and allow staff to continue to work with the assigned condominium consultant on a case-by-case basis.
