After review of the information presented by the Applicant, Commissioner Gendrano moved to approve the real estate salesperson's license of Timothy Caviezel subject to the following conditions:

1. That during the term of parole/probation, any violation of the terms of the parole/probation, by the Applicant, shall be grounds for revocation of license.
2. That any subsequent criminal conviction whether by nolo contendere or otherwise, of a penal crime directly related to the qualifications, functions, or duties of the licensed profession or vocation shall be grounds for revocation of license.
3. That failure to provide written notice within 30 days to the licensing authority of any judgment, award, disciplinary sanctions, order, or other determination, which adjudges or finds that the licensee is civilly, criminally, or otherwise liable for any personal injury, property damage, or loss caused by the licensee's conduct in the practice of the licensee's profession or vocation shall be grounds for revocation.

4. That the Applicant shall at all times be associated with and under the direct supervision of a principal broker or one or more brokers in charge, for all real estate transactions.
5. That the Applicant shall inform the principal broker or sole proprietor real estate broker (including a broker-in-charge of a real estate branch office) with whom the Applicant associates that such a conditional real estate salesperson license has been granted and the terms of the conditional license.
6. That any change of association and/or employment by Applicant to another real estate broker shall be submitted in writing to the Commission with the new broker, principal broker or sole proprietor, and if applicable the broker-in-charge, acknowledging the terms of the Applicant's conditional license within ten (10) days of the change.
7. That the Applicant shall pay all fines/fees ordered by the courts.
8. And that the release of the Applicant from parole/probation shall not imply any changes upon the conditions of the license.
9. Upon successful completion of parole/probation, the Applicant must submit a written request to the Commission if the Applicant desires to have the conditions removed.
