2017 (Monday & Tuesday)

First Day: 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.
Second Day: 9:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

Location: HawaiiUSA Federal Credit Union Bldg.
1259 A'ala Street, Community Room, 1st Floor

The Hawaii Real Estate Commission and the Hawai'i Association of REALTORS® are sponsoring a one-and-a-half day interactive workshop to Train Trainers to Teach. Whether you want to sharpen your teaching skills or want to learn how to become an exceptional trainer, this workshop is for you!

- Build a solid foundation by using various teaching methods.
- Transform your teaching presentation into an interactive experience for students.
- Build the confidence and enjoyment in teaching!

Day 1: Each module in Day 1 demonstrates how to develop your instructor presentation, step by step. You select your presentation from topics provided. By the end of the day, you will have completed an action packed 10-minute teaching presentation. BRING YOUR LAPTOP or TABLET to class.

HOMEWORK: Your presentation will be completed in class and you will spend time in the evening practicing and polishing your presentation for the next day.

DAY 2: Everyone in the class will deliver a 10-minute presentation. Yes, you'll be on your feet teaching in a safe environment. After your presentation, the class will provide support by sharing what you did well and how you might improve the next time you teach. You'll receive constructive feedback from your peers and coaching by the instructor.

FOR YOUR EYES ONLY: You will be provided a video of your presentation as a benchmark for measuring your progress.

INSTRUCTOR: Beth Holiday, R(S), ABR, CRB, GRI, RCC (Registered Corporate Coach)

This meets the Instructor Development Workshop (IDW) Requirement for CE & Pre-Licensing Instructors

Sponsored by Hawaii Real Estate Commission and Hawai'i REALTORS®

"This workshop is partially funded from funds from the Real Estate Education Fund, Real Estate Commission, Professional and Vocational Licensing Division, Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs, State of Hawaii."

Cost: $125 per person. Includes one and a half days of training, materials and a video of your training presentation.
