The registration requirements do not apply to condominium managing agents who are licensed active real estate brokers and who manage the operation of the property.

LICENSE REQUIREMENT Prior to registering as a condominium managing agent, applicant shall be an entity authorized to do business under Article 8 of Chapter 412 (trust companies).

You may be sent a registration certificate before the payment you sent us for your required fees is honored by your bank. If your payment is dishonored, you will have failed to pay the required registration fee and your registration will not be valid, and you may not do business under that registration. Also, a $25.00 service charge shall be assessed for payments that are dishonored for any reason.*

If for any reason you are denied the registration you are applying for, you may be entitled to a hearing as provided by Title 16, Chapter 201, Hawaii Administrative Rules, and/or Chapter 91, Hawaii Revised Statutes. Your written request for a hearing must be directed to the agency that denied your application, and must be made within 60 days of notification that your application for registration has been denied.

BOND REQUIREMENT All condominium managing agents are required to obtain and keep current a fidelity bond which shall cover all persons handling condominium association funds for the condominium managing agent.

Bond Amount: To calculate the amount of coverage needed, multiply the aggregate number of units in all condominium associations managed, by $500. The minimum bond amount shall be $20,000, regardless of the number of units being managed, and the maximum is $500,000. The deductible shall not exceed the greater of $2,000 or 5% of the face amount of the bond. In no case shall the deductible be greater than $5,000.

HRS §514B-132(a)(3) requires the condominium managing agent to obtain and keep current a fidelity or employee dishonesty bond or a certification statement (CSI-01 form enclosed in packet) which is issued by a company currently authorized by the insurance commissioner of Hawaii to issue insurance in this State, in compliance with the statute and any related rules, which:

1. Names the Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs, Real Estate Branch, as the certificate holder;
2. States that the bond is a fidelity or employee dishonesty bond;

4. Names the condominium managing agent only as the insured and excludes any other person, trade name, business name or entity as the named insured;
5. States that the policy covers the condominium managing agent against fraudulent or dishonest acts by the employees of the managing agent;
6. Includes an expiration date or a statement that the bond is continuous; and
7. Specifies whether the bond is a blanket or name schedule type, and if a name schedule type, lists all persons covered.

Upon request by the commission the managing agent shall provide evidence of a current fidelity bond or a certification statement.

A fidelity bond must be maintained throughout registration. If at any time the bond expires, is canceled or terminated for any reason, or the registrant fails to provide evidence of continuous bond coverage, the condominium managing agent registration shall be automatically terminated without notice to the condominium managing agent. An unregistered managing agent is without authorization to engage in condominium managing agent activity. Once unregistered, you will be required to complete new registration application requirements in order to obtain registration.
