The other materials submitted are available for the Commissioners review should they desire to review it. If the applicants have an issue, which is personal in nature, they have the right to request that their application be considered in executive session.

Licensing – Applications:

Ivonne Del Carmen Todd, fka Ivonne Johnson-Todd

Ms. Todd was present and was asked if she wished to have her request for preliminary decision application for real estate salesperson considered in executive session. She declined the offer.

Applicant informed the Commission she recently learned about the Dexter Financial judgment against her and that she had an additional judgment outstanding. Applicant stated she intended to file for bankruptcy but was not able to due to an illness. She stated two additional creditors were owed money and she was trying to repay all debts. Applicant added she took real estate prelicense classes and was not aware her judgment would stand in her way of obtaining a license.

Commissioner Arakaki asked if Ms. Todd had any payment plans in place. Applicant responded she did not but her attorney was in the process of getting things in order so applicant could sell her home in Houston to pay her debts.

Commissioner Faulkner asked Ms. Todd if she was aware of the costs associated with becoming a salesperson and in what facet of real estate she wanted to work. Applicant answered she was interested in residential sales and Coldwell Banker was willing to help her. Applicant shared although she is currently employed at the Honolulu Post Office, she does not make enough to cover her medical bills and other debts.

Chair Pang inquired about her Dexter Financial and San Antonio Credit Union debts. Applicant responded those were her ex-husband's debts and stated he will be repaying them. She added she agreed to co-sign on loans because she was a single mother with two children and was hoping if she helped him, he would make his child support payments. Chair Pang asked if Ms. Todd would leave her job at the post office if granted a real estate license. Applicant replied she would remain employed at the post office full-time and real estate would be on a part-time basis.

Commissioner Arakaki moved to take the matter under advisement. Commissioner Lee seconded the motion. The motion was voted on and unanimously carried.

Lawrence Kaliko Tam Ho

Mr. Tam Ho was present via teleconference and was asked if he wished to have his application for real estate salesperson considered in executive session. He declined the offer.

Applicant stated although on paper his application looks really bad, he was praying for the opportunity to become a licensee.

Commissioner Lee referred to applicant's letter dated June 27, 2018, and inquired if Mr. Tam Ho was currently employed at the Westin Kaanapali. Applicant responded he was and just completed and graduated from a 45-day training program. He added no sales were involved as they were awaiting the Commission's decision regarding his license.

Chair Pang noted Mr. Tam Ho worked in auto sales for 10 years and inquired if he was still currently selling automobiles. Applicant responded he was not and he decided to pursue real estate and sell timeshares at the Westin.

Executive Session: Upon a motion by Commissioner Arakaki, seconded by Commissioner Ginoza, it was voted on and unanimously carried to enter into executive session, pursuant to section 92-5(a)(1), HRS, "To consider and evaluate personal information, relating to individuals applying for professional or vocational licenses cited in section 26-9 or both;" and pursuant to section 92-5(a)(4), HRS, "To consult with the board's attorney on questions and issues pertaining to the board's powers, duties, privileges, immunities, and liabilities."
