fees as se honored valid, and	Additionally, one of the numerous legal requirements that you must meet in order for your new license to be issued is the payment of fees as set forth in this application. You may be sent a license certificate before the payment you sent us for your required fees is honored by your bank. If your payment is dishonored, you will have failed to pay the required licensing fee and your license will not be valid, and you may not do business under that license. Also, a $25.00 service charge shall be assessed for payments that are dishonored for any reason.
the exam handboo candidat	If your application is approved and an Equivalency to Uniform Section of Examination certificate is issued to you, you may register for the examination directly with the testing company if you have also met Hawaii's prelicensing education requirement. A candidate handbook with registration and examination information will be sent to you with the certificate. The examination fee, whether a candidate takes one or both sections of the examination, is $61. The certificate expires two years from the date issued and the original certificate must be submitted with the license application.
