EFFECTS OF COVID-19

What hath Covid-19 wrought?

The DCCA will be open to the public Monday through Friday from 7:45 a.m. – 12:00 noon throughout the remainder of 2020. DCCA staff is on an in-office rotation schedule for each division, and staff will be working until 4:30 p.m. daily to answer telephone calls and emails and continue processing normal workloads.

The agendas for the monthly standing committees of the Real Estate Commission (“Commission”) (Laws and Rules Review, Condominium Review, and the Education Review committees) will be included in the agenda for the monthly Commission meeting, which takes place on the last Friday of the month. There will be no separate committee meeting for each of the standing committees. The monthly Commission meeting will be held virtually, via Zoom, and for executive or closed session segments via Microsoft Teams. Links to join each meeting will be distributed to attendees prior to the meeting.

The license renewal deadline of November 30th still stands and is not expected to be changed. The Commission and approved CE Providers have adjusted to the Covid-19 era and are offering their formerly live course offerings via webinar and virtual meeting platforms such as Zoom. It is the responsibility of the CE Provider to establish rules for attendees of web-based course offerings in order to receive CE credit. The attendees may be required to face the camera throughout the course offering to refrain from answering telephone calls or doing any other type of “work” while the course is going on, to attend the course throughout its stated duration, and other requirements as determined by the CE Provider.

CE Providers report a decline in the number of licensees taking CE. There are about two months remaining until the November 30th renewal deadline. Usually, about this time, the numbers of licensees cramming in their CE requirement jumps. The number of licensees renewing is expected to drop due to the pandemic. The number of licensees renewing on inactive status may increase.

PSI testing has been greatly affected by the pandemic. Social distancing requirements limit the number of candidates testing at each test session. Test sites are very difficult to establish due to closures of public spaces and many businesses. PSI resorted to “paper and pencil” testing for Kauai, with test results taking up to two weeks to be distributed. Quarantine restrictions also made it nearly impossible for PSI staffing to open test sessions on some Neighbor Islands without a permanent test site. Testing on Oahu has been consistent since April. PSI did create a toll-free number specifically for Hawaii candidates: 855-579-4640.

PSI Call Center Hours:

Monday – Friday 1:30 am to 4:00 pm HST

Saturday –Sunday 3:00 am to 12:00n HST

WHAT CE COURSES HAVE I TAKEN?????

Probably one of the most common inquiries received by the Real Estate Branch in the months before the November 30th renewal deadline this year, or any renewal year, is, “How do I find out what CE courses I’ve completed?” HERE’S THE ANSWER:

Log on to your MyPVL account (pvl.hawaii.gov/mypvl). Once logged into your MyPVL account, click on your license number, click on "RECE" (Real Estate Continuing Education) tab and click "View CE History." You should be able to see all courses completed and reported to the Commission.

Use a computer to access this information. Do NOT use your cell phone.

TIME TO RENEW

It’s that time, an even-numbered year, and a renewal deadline of November 30th. All prelicense schools, prelicense instructors, guest instructors, continuing education providers, and continuing education courses must be re-registered/re-certified preferably by the November 30th deadline, but certainly no later than December 31, 2020. All current registrations and certifications are good through December 31st.

Reminder: All prelicense instructors and continuing education instructors must have completed an Instructors Development Workshop (IDW) during the 2019-2020 biennium in order to teach in the 2021-2022 biennium. It is the responsibility of the CE Provider to see that the instructors they use for their offered courses have met the IDW requirement. The CE

Provider should have on file the IDW completion certificate of their instructors, subject to review if asked by the Commission.

CE online course recertification: If you are recertifying an online CE course, please review it if it's more than one biennium old, as the requirements for interactivity within the course have changed. Some older online courses were simply a video of the instructor talking to a live class, but without much else going on. These are no longer acceptable.

Preliminary salespersons curriculum: The updated salespersons curriculum is effective January 1, 2021. If the updated curriculum has already been integrated into a school's offering, then there is nothing further required.

Real estate license renewal: The online renewal system goes LIVE on Monday, October 19, 2020, 12:01 a.m. Renew online at pvl.hawaii.gov/mypvl. The online renewal site will shut down on December 31, 2020, 12:00 a.m. Renew by Monday, November 30, 2020 to ensure a successful renewal before the license expiration of December 31, 2020.

New SALESPERSON license (NOT new broker license) in 2020: If you were issued a new salesperson license in calendar year 2020 and renew your license by the renewal deadline of November 30, 2020, you will be deemed to have completed equivalent to the CE requirement and will not have to complete the CE requirement for this license renewal.

YES answers on renewal application: If a licensee has a "YES" answer to any of the following questions, the online renewal system will not allow you to proceed with the online renewal:

1. In the past 2 years has your license in this state or any other jurisdiction been formally disciplined by way of a fine, suspension, restriction, or revocation?
2. Are there any disciplinary actions pending against you in this state or any other jurisdiction?
3. In the past 2 years have you been convicted of a crime in which the conviction has not been annulled or expunged?

Licensees answering "YES" to any of the above questions will not be able to renew online. The system will prompt the licensee to print the renewal application which must then be MAILED together with the supporting documentation to the Professional and Vocational Licensing Division at P.O. Box 3469, Honolulu, HI 96801.

Entity and sole proprietor renewal application: Two NEW questions will be asked on the entity and sole proprietor renewal applications.

1. Does this brokerage, or any associated licensee, manage property?
2. If so, how many units does our brokerage manage in total?
_____ 1-10 _____ 11-50 _____ 51-100 _____ Over 100

Principal brokers and brokers-in-charge: Complete your CE requirements as soon as possible, as a successful renewal includes completion of CE requirements prior to the submission of your renewal application. To re-register a branch office, the BIC's license must also be successfully renewed in addition to the PB's license and the brokerage firm's license. If the PB's, BIC's and/or the brokerage firm's licenses are not successfully renewed before December 31, 2020 and BEFORE the associating licensees, all associating licensees will be renewed on inactive status.

Principal brokers, brokers-in-charge, brokerage firms, and branch offices: The renewal applications for PBs, BICs, brokerage firms and branch offices should be renewed simultaneously during early November and BEFORE renewals of the associating licensees. If an associating licensee renews prior to the PB, BIC(s), and brokerage firm's renewal, the associating licensee's renewal application will be held in suspense until the PB, BIC(s), and brokerage firm have successfully renewed all licenses.

REVISED EDUCATION APPLICATIONS

Effective September 1, 2020, the following real estate education applications have been amended:

1. Prelicense School Registration – Schools will indicate on the application what types of prelicense offerings they will include: salesperson's curriculum, broker's curriculum, and whether these offerings will be live, remote-live, and/or online. Previously, there was a separate application if a school was offering online courses. This supplementary application is no longer required.
2. Prelicense Instructor – A prelicense instructor will indicate on the application what types of prelicense offerings they will teach: salesperson's curriculum, broker's curriculum, and whether these offerings will be live, remote-live, and/or online. Previously, there was a separate application if the instructor was teaching an online course. This supplementary application is no longer required.
3. Real Estate Continuing Education Elective Course – The author/owner may choose to offer the course in a live and/or remote/live format. The updated requirement for interactivity throughout the course is at least one interactive event for each course topic.
4. Online Real Estate Continuing Education Elective Course – The application is generally the same with the deletion of the question regarding written documentation of the clock hour justification. One new question asks the average number of assessment questions per course topic.
5. Recertification of Real Estate Continuing Education Course – The author/owner will certify that there is at least one interactive event for each course topic.
6. Recertification of Online Real Estate Continuing Education Elective Course – The author/owner will certify that there is at least one interactive event for each course topic.

WHAT IS CONSIDERED INTERACTIVITY?

Both live and online CE courses are required to include interactive events. For live and remote/live courses, the instructor and the attendees are more naturally apt to be engaged in the course as it proceeds. Usually, the instructor will acknowledge the students, ask questions of the class, and may include Power Point presentations, use graphics or photos to illustrate certain points, stream videos, use handouts, encourage questions from the students, etc. With the advent of the Covid-19 pandemic, remote/live courses have been the main form of offering CE. But, the dynamics of live classroom offerings remains pretty much the same.

For strictly online course offerings, interactivity takes different forms. There is no learner to instructor or instructor to learner interaction. The course information comes across in text which is read by the student, narrated text, short videos, graphics, quizzes, vocabulary, hyperlinks, photos, and many other types of interactivity. Online courses should NOT be a talking-head.

For CE course applications, the interactive events throughout the course should be identified. If an online course does not contain interactivity, it may not be approved for offering. The requirements for interactivity in an online course are not rigorous. For each course topic, the requirement is only one instance of interactivity. If quizzes are used as the form of interactivity, the quiz of 5 or more questions requires an 80% pass rate for the student. If the quizzes include 4 questions, the student should pass the quiz with at least a 75% pass rate. If the quiz only includes 1-3 questions, the student should achieve 100% pass rate.

Although the real estate licensing law does not require a final exam to receive CE credit, for online CE courses, the “final exam” is perceived as a means of completing the course, and the student must complete the final exam, although a pass rate is not required.
