Request for Approval to Amend proposed HAR Section 16-119.1-1

Senior Condominium Specialist Richelieu informed the Commission that the proposed amendment has been vetted by the deputy attorney general who formerly handled condo matters. She further noted that Commissioner Love and Commissioner Senter were involved with this proposed amendment and that it is currently with the Attorney General's office. Specialist Richelieu stated that she believed that there is a better definition of "sale". Commissioner Senter questioned whether the proposed definition of sale is only for §514B-51. Specialist Richelieu responded that the proposed rules only apply to chapter 514B. The issue was raised because chapter 514B does not have a clear definition of sale.

Commission Senter questioned the definition of a "bona fide sale."

Specialist Richelieu responded the intent was to make clear that "sale" as used in -51 and -58 is not a gift, inheritance, or return on an investment.

Report of Condominium Consultants' Forum held on April 29, 2021

Continuing Education Core Course – 2nd Draft, Core A 2021-2022, "Fair Play in Fair Housing: It's Not a Game, It's the Law!"

Senior Real Estate Specialist Fujimura informed the Commission that the review of the second draft of the Core A course was on-going and the final draft is due on June 11, 2021. Commissioner Klein questioned the bullet point on page 19 referring to the advice to dispose of "love letters". She inquired whether an attorney had checked whether such an instruction was appropriate. She expressed concern that the instruction may cause an agent to breach his/her fiduciary duty. She suggested that it should be amended to advise agents to consult with their principal broker about treatment of a "love letter" instead of disposing it. She expressed concern that it may appear the Commission endorsed this action because it appeared in our course.

Specialist Fujimura responded that language was from the National Association of REALTORS® (NAR), and that she would ask the course author to note this was a NAR recommendation. In addition, instructors will emphasize that this was recommended by NAR and not the Real Estate Commission. Deputy Attorney General Wong suggested the course author include a paragraph regarding a disclosure of the Commission's role. Specialist Fujimura confirmed that the Commission's disclosure language is included in the course and commented that she will pass the Commission's concerns on to the ACE committee and the course author.

Commissioner Pang moved to approve the 2nd Draft of Core A 2021-2022, "Fair Play in Fair Housing: It's Not a Game, It's the Law!", subject to revisions and concerns addressed by Commissioner Klein, unless it materially changes the course. Commissioner Kyono seconded the motion. The motion was voted on and unanimously carried by roll call vote.
