Chapter 91, HRS,
Adjudicatory
Matters:

The Chair called for a recess from the meeting at 9:50 a.m., to discuss and deliberate on the following adjudicatory matters, pursuant to Chapter 91, HRS:

In the Matter of the Real Estate Salesperson's License of Manuel M. Fernandez: REC 2018-227-L

At 10:02 a.m. the floor was opened for the parties to present their oral arguments.

Chair Pang commenced the proceedings and explained that each party would be given five (5) minutes to present their oral arguments and each would be given an opportunity for rebuttal.

John Hassler, Esq., presented oral arguments on behalf of the Regulated Industries Complaints Office (RICO), Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs, State of Hawaii ("Petitioner").

Mr. Hassler recapped RICO's allegations that charged Mr. Fernandez with violating HRS §§436B-19(12), 436B-19(17), 436B-19(1), and 436B-19(14). Although the Office of Administration's Hearings Officer found the evidence was insufficient to prove violations of HRS §§436B-19(1) and (14), Mr. Hassler reaffirmed the position that Mr. Fernandez violated all charges and asked the Commission to consider whether Mr. Fernandez's DUI conviction is related to his profession. Mr. Hassler went over similar cases and Commission's previous rulings.

Manuel Fernandez ("Respondent") addressed the Commission and presented oral arguments.

Mr. Fernandez stated that although he was not an attorney his response is that a DUI does not hinder his ability to service prospective clients. He believes fiduciary duties as a real estate salesperson is foremost and stated the five (5) main duties of the profession as he learned in a prelicensing course are accounting, confidentiality, full disclosure, honesty, and obedience.

Mr. Fernandez stated that he was not trying to minimize his actions but a DUI does not hinder his duties, qualifications, and functions as a real estate agent. He added that he received his degree in accounting and no longer drinks alcohol. He asked the Commission to allow him to pay the fine as noted in the Commission's Final Order and allow him to keep his real estate license.

Mr. Hassler stated that due to connectivity issues, he did not hear all of Mr. Fernandez's testimony. Mr. Hassler began his rebuttal and stated that although fiduciary duties are an important component of licensure, licensing laws are specific and RICO asks the Commission to reaffirm their findings. RICO is not recommending any change but stands on its ruling that a DUI is related to the duties of a real estate licensee.

Mr. Fernandez began his rebuttal and stated he agreed that a DUI does reflect the integrity of the profession but that he is not on any billboard and is not practicing real estate yet. He added that he would like the opportunity to represent the profession and to show that he can be responsible and reliable.

Chair Pang thanked the parties and informed them the Commission would confer with counsel. At 10:21 a.m., Mr. Hassler and Mr. Fernandez left the virtual meeting.
