EDUCATION SYSTEM

The growing pains of the new “Education System” continue. We KNOW of the continuing glitches that affect inputting of information and reporting of information. We, too, are equally, if not more, concerned, frustrated, and somewhat helpless dealing with the reports of the system not working well. Following are some of the issues being worked on, and hopefully corrected, as well as how-to-do instructions. Please continue to notify the Real Estate Branch (REB) of any glitches you come across. Your patience and understanding are much appreciated.

The most common issues being reported by Prelicense Schools to REB:

ATTENDEE’S EMAIL:

If you are unable to find an attendee’s email and the attendee swears they created an account, have the attendee use their credentials to log into their MyPVL account using the following url: <https://mypvl.dcca.hawaii.gov/>; 99% of the time this will rectify the issue.

STUDENT’S NAME APPEARING WRONG ON THE SCHOOL COMPLETION CERTIFICATE:

Students are responsible for registering using their legal name. However, we have had a few instances where the student uses a nickname or their email address as their first name when registering. It is important to remind them that whatever name they register, is what will appear on the certificate.

If students ignore instructions and need their name to be corrected, you may email us on their behalf or have them call the Real Estate Branch at (808) 586-2643 and ask to be directed to Nohelani or Charisa. Students will eventually be able to modify their names in their account on their own, however, that feature is still in a testing environment.

Known Issues Currently Being Addressed:

CE PROVIDERS

MAKE-UP CREDITS BEING CREDITED TO THE INCORRECT BIENNIUM:

Currently, CE Providers are able to mark classes as make-up, however, the problem is that the biennium either doesn't change or moves to the wrong biennium.

As our developers work on the issue, please use a change form and send to our office to correct. We will send the CE Providers an email once the problem has been corrected.

Many CE Providers have been asking whether or not they should submit an attendee that was previously submitted through the old CE system. The short answer is "No." When you use the "submit attendee" button, it creates a duplicate CE record for the licensee. The developers are looking into the issue. There is one caveat, if you submitted the attendee in the old system, however, the credit is not appearing in their CE History, then please hit the submit button again.

INSTRUCTORS NOT POPULATING WHEN SCHEDULING A COURSE:

We have received a few reports that when scheduling a course, you don't see all your instructors listed. Please email us at roster@dcca.hawaii.gov and we can assist you. This applies to both Prelicense and CE instructors. CE Providers used to have the option of adding an instructor through the Education Portal but currently, the feature is not working properly.

CE COURSE COMPLETION CERTIFICATES:

CE completion certificates are populating the course end date and not the completion date. We are aware of the issue and it is currently being worked on. Thankfully, staff are able to see the completion dates in our internal portal. Therefore, please assure licensees that we have the correct information in the database.

PRELICENSE STUDENT LOGIN INSTRUCTIONS:

Have students register for an account by using the following url:
<https://mypvl.dcca.hawaii.gov/>.

After signing up, have the student login with their newly created credentials. They should be brought to a screen that says "0" linked licenses.

PRELICENSE SCHOOLS:

Please use the online Education Portal to print out Prelicense School Completion Certificates for students. DO NOT USE Ho'ala certificates unless the Real Estate Branch cannot be contacted to assist. The student should not be scheduling an exam until they receive their School Completion Certificate, but we all know we have a few that will register anyway.

CONTINUING EDUCATION COURSE APPLICATIONS

Often the incorrect continuing education course application is submitted for certification and re-certification. To clarify which continuing course application should be used and when, please review the chart below and SAVE it, so it can be a ready reference when needed.

A common situation is when a continuing education provider submits previously-approved ARELLO courses for certification and/or re-certification. ARELLO is the acronym for the Association of Real Estate License Law Officials. ARELLO courses are only distance education courses. ARELLO courses are authored and approved via a strict and pricey review process.

The author of the approved ARELLO course is considered by ARELLO to be a “primary provider.” If a continuing education provider submits the ARELLO courses previously approved by another Hawaii provider, the correct application to use is the Continuing Education Elective Course application for ONLINE courses. The course application fee is the standard fee of $150.00 for a minimum 3-hour course, or $50.00/credit, if more than 3 hours. DO NOT USE THE NATIONALLY- or ARELLO-CERTIFIED course application. Again, if the continuing education provider is not the primary provider for an ARELLO-certified course, the provider must use the Continuing Education Online Elective Course application.

The arrangements to use previously-approved ARELLO courses is between the primary provider and the “secondary provider” (ARELLO’s terminology), the continuing education provider who wants to use these ARELLO courses for their offering schedule. The primary provider must provide the Authorization to Offer Course form to the “secondary provider,” and this form must be submitted along with the applications for the courses. The SAME application is used for re-certification of ARELLO courses. The “secondary provider,” if recertifying these ARELLO courses, submits the RE-CERTIFICATION application for Continuing Education Online Elective Course.

Nationally-certified courses are generally courses approved by a national organization such as CCIM, BIA, RRC, etc. These nationally-certified courses should be submitted using the Nationally- or ARELLO-certified Course application. The SAME application and fee are used for re-certification of these nationally-certified courses. The Authorization to Offer Course must also be submitted.

	Written permission to offer course from author/owner of course	Continuing Education Elective Course Application	Nationally or ARELLO Certified Course Application	Application Fee
				$150/3 hours	$25/3 hours
New Elective Course		X Submitted by author/owner		X
Elective Course previously certified by author/owner	X
Nationally- or ARELLO-Certified Course (taught by a nationally certified instructor certified by the NAR or its affiliates, BOMA, CAI or nat'l org approved by the Commission)	X		X		X
Nationally- or ARELLO-Certified Course (offered by a CE Provider that is not an affiliate of NAR or an ARELLO provider. The course may or may not be taught by a nationally or ARELLO certified instructor, live or online)	X	X		X

Follow this chart when submitting continuing education courses for certification.

Courses may be submitted for a minimum of 3 credit hours up to 15 credit hours. DO NOT INCLUDE BREAKS OR NON-INSTRUCTIONAL TIME in the clock hours submitted for approval.

The course certification fees are $150 for a 3-hour course, and $50 for each additional hour applied for. For example, the application fee for a 4-hour course will be $200. Course certification fees are non-refundable.

For Nationally- or ARELLO-certified CE courses, the course certification and recertification fees remain at $25 for a 3-hour course, and $25 for each additional 3-hour increment or portion thereof.

For re-certification purposes, please again provide the Authorization to Offer Course form signed by the author/owner of the course.

INSTRUCTORS DEVELOPMENT WORKSHOP

We need suggestions and ideas for topics for the next Instructors Development Workshop (“IDW”). The past two IDWs presented by Theresa Barnabei were excellent and provided attendees with technology tips and how to integrate technology into presenting a “stellar class.”

As technology continues to move forward, there are probably more tips on how to use the right technology in the right way to enhance a course offering.

Send in your ideas for the next IDW to:

Diane Choy Fujimura
Real Estate Branch
roster@dcca.hawaii.gov

We look forward to hearing from as many people as possible. The next IDW is targeted for early spring 2022.
