Licensing – Applications:

James Kevin McGovern

Commissioner Pang thanked Mr. McGovern for his patience and asked if he had anything further to add in support of his application. Mr. McGovern responded that he was semi-retired, planned on staying in Maui, and worked in real estate in the past. He believes he meets the credibility requirements to be a real estate salesperson, and stated the bankruptcy discharge he provided is clearly pertinent. The bankruptcy was a result of the recession, and that the judge advised him to convert his Chapter 13 to a Chapter 7. Mr. McGovern stated there were no other issues, nothing further to review, and asked the Commission to consider the document of adjudication that he submitted as acceptable and adequate. Any other documents are immaterial and may be pertinent to the Commission but is not material in his role as a real estate salesperson. He added that he would retrieve documents from the U.S. Bankruptcy Court if the Commission deemed it necessary.
Commissioner Pang referred to the applicant’s 2014 conviction and confirmed that his payment plan was still on-going. Mr. McGovern responded that the matter was not adjudicated until January 2016 and was not able to make payment then as he failed to receive any money from a sale. He added that as a result of the inquiry by Specialist Fujimura, he has now started a payment plan and intends to fulfill this obligation. Commissioner Pang asked if the applicant forgot about this debt. Mr. McGovern answered he did not forget, and it was the pandemic that did not allow him to pay.

Commissioner Pang referred to the applicant’s preliminary decision real estate salesperson application that was submitted in March 2021, and noted the applicant answered "No" to all application questions. Commission Pang referred to the subsequent application for real estate salesperson license that was submitted in April 2022, and noted the applicant answered "Yes" to all of the same questions. Mr. McGovern responded that he started his initial application in 2015 and was informed by Lorrin Kau that misdemeanors should not be a problem, and because his driving while intoxicated charge was not adjudicated he should submit a preliminary decision real estate application. He discovered after he submitted that application that he also had an outstanding license matter in Arizona. Mr. McGovern stated he gave the application to an assistant to complete for him, now realizes that was a mistake, apologizes, and takes responsibility. He added that he can make a payment to the real estate recovery fund for this error.

Commissioner Pang inquired if the applicant’s wife took any action against him. Mr. McGovern responded his wife only took divorce action and the reason he filed for bankruptcy was to protect her, her retirement, and other assets.

Upon a motion by Commissioner Pang, seconded by Commissioner Ginoza, it was moved and unanimously carried by roll call vote to take the matter under advisement.

Eric J. Youn

After review of the information provided by the applicant, Commissioner Pang moved to most likely approve the real estate salesperson’s license of Eric J. Youn. Commissioner Kyono seconded the motion. The motion was voted on and unanimously carried by roll call vote.

Chelsey L. Flesher

Ms. Flesher was present via teleconference and was asked if she wished to have her preliminary decision application for real estate salesperson considered in executive session. She accepted the offer.

Commissioner Love departed the meeting at 10:53 a.m. due to a prior commitment.

Executive Session: Upon a motion by Commissioner Pang, seconded by Commissioner Ginoza, it was voted on and unanimously carried by roll call vote to enter into executive session, pursuant to section 92-5(a) (1), HRS, "To consider and evaluate personal information relating to individuals applying for professional or vocational licenses cited in section 26-9 or both.", and/or section 92-5(a)(8), HRS, "To deliberate or make a decision upon a matter that requires the consideration of information that must be kept confidential pursuant to a state or federal law, or a court order." and/or section 92-5(a)(4), HRS, "To consult with the board’s attorney on questions and issues pertaining to the board’s powers, duties, privileges, immunities, and liabilities."

Upon a motion by Commissioner Pang, seconded by Commissioner Senter, it was voted on and unanimously carried by roll call vote to move out of executive session.

Licensing – Applications: Chelsey L. Flesher

After review of the information and testimony presented by the applicant, Commissioner Pang moved to most likely approve the real estate salesperson’s license of Chelsey L. Flesher, with the inclusion of Hawaii Real Estate licensing statutes in the approval letter to ensure the applicant does not engage in certain real estate activities, and that no laws are being violated. Commissioner La Costa seconded the motion. The motion was voted on and unanimously carried by roll call vote.

James Kevin McGovern
