IT'S A RENEWAL YEAR!

CONTINUING EDUCATION PROVIDERS, COURSES

- Re-registrations and re-certifications are currently being accepted. All current registrations and certifications are good through 12/31/2022, however, please re-register and re-certify early to avoid any delays. All applications are posted on our website at https://cca.hawaii.gov/reb/rec_forms/ under Continuing Education Application Forms.
- Renewal of CORE A and CORE B require the completion and approval of the “Reregistration of Real Estate Continuing Education Provider” application. Upon approval of the re-registration, we will add Core A and Core B to your provider-approved courses within the CE system. This form is also available at our aforementioned website above.
- Update your CE courses to meet the Live and Remote/Live requirements and/or the online course requirements. Refer to Page 3 in this issue for further information.
- Completion of an Instructor’s Development Workshop is required PRIOR to teaching. Providers should monitor the instructors they use to teach offered courses.

PRELICENSE SCHOOLS, INSTRUCTORS, GUEST LECTURERS

- Re-registrations and re-certifications are currently being accepted. As above, all current registrations and certifications are good through 12/31/2022, however, early re-registration and re-certification is highly recommended.

- Completion of an Instructor’s Development Workshop is required PRIOR to teaching. School Principals should monitor the instructors they use to teach offered courses.

INSTRUCTOR’S DEVELOPMENT WORKSHOP

REMEMBER: Pursuant to Hawaii Administrative Rules, §16-99-104, Criteria for certification of a continuing education instructor (e) “The commission may require that each instructor complete an instructor’s workshop as approved by the commission prior to teaching in each biennium.” (emphasis added) If an instructor, whether it be a prelicense instructor or continuing education instructor did not complete an IDW, as approved by the commission in the prior biennium, that instructor must complete a commission-approved IDW prior to teaching in the current biennium.

Contact the Real Estate Branch for further information.

LICENSEES

- This is an even-numbered year and the real estate license renewal deadline for all salespersons, brokers, and entities is November 30, as usual. Online renewal via MyPVL will be available October 24, 2022.
- Renewal information: Licensees should be reminded to check their MyPVL account for current information on license renewal at <https://mypvl.dcca.hawaii.gov>.
- All real estate SALESPERSONs receiving their license in the even-numbered year of the biennium, 2022, are NOT required to complete the 20 hours of continuing education to renew their license current/active. They must still RENEW their license by November 30.
- Continuing Education Equivalency (CEE) Application: The CEE application applies to Hawaii salespersons and brokers who hold a current, unencumbered (no conditions or disciplinary actions attached to the license) real estate salesperson or broker license in another state/jurisdiction, and who have successfully completed the CE requirements in that state/jurisdiction.

This equivalency is for ELECTIVE COURSE HOURS ONLY. If granted, the licensee will still be required to complete the 2021-2022 core course (Core A & B) in order to fulfill Hawaii's CE requirement. This application is posted on the Real Estate Branch website under the following link:

https://cca.hawaii.gov/reb/rec_forms/ under Continuing Education Application Forms. This application will be removed from the website midnight 12/31/22.

REMINDER of LIVE and REMOTE/LIVE Continuing Education Course Requirements*

At its monthly Real Estate Commission meeting on Friday, June 24, 2022, the Commission approved the Requirements for Live and Remote/Live Continuing Education Courses. These requirements will go into effect for all new and re-certified live and remote/live continuing education courses submitted and approved for the 2023-2024 biennium.*

For traditional live continuing education courses, there is more than likely, interaction between the instructor and the students. To enhance participation, attention, and learning in continuing education classes, various types of interactivity should occur throughout the course. The interactivity must be included after each unit of learning in the course. These interactive events may include quiz questions on the course content covered, or other types of instructional methods, such as videos, small group discussions, in-course assignments. The number of quiz questions is left to the discretion of the author/owner of the course. However, the student should get at least a 70% correct score on multiple quiz questions in order to proceed through the course.

It is not acceptable to offer a Remote/Live course where participants are NOT visible to the instructor. This creates an undue hardship on the instructor to engage participants that are not visible. He has no way to gauge his effectiveness as an instructor, and whether or not the points of instruction are reaching the students. This cannot be a guessing game. Any instructor needs direct feedback from students in the moment.

In summary:

*For Remote/Live Continuing Education Courses, the inclusion of interactivity via various instructional methods and instructional aids is required after each logical unit of instruction.

*The instructor is required to view the registered participants and use the appropriate web-based platforms to accomplish this.

UPDATES - EDUCATION SYSTEM

Issues that CE Providers and Prelicense Schools have reported to the Real Estate Branch have been relayed to the developer. If you are aware of any “glitches” in the Education System, please report it to the Real Estate Branch, 808-586-2643, or email roster@dcca.hawaii.gov.

Here are the issues that have been resolved:

1. When sorting by Course Dates (for prelicense and continuing education courses), the filter is now sorting properly.

2. The deactivate button is now operational. Please note that if you would like the course completely removed you will need to contact either Charisa or Nohe at the phone number and email provided above.
3. If a licensee has upgraded from an RS to RB after April 14, 2022, then all their CE credits will have moved over to their RB license. For those who upgraded their license prior to April 14, 2022, please assure them that their credits will move over before the start of renewals.
4. The CE Provider's view of licensee's CE data in the CE Portal and the student's view in their MyPVL account has been updated to reflect what DCCA sees in their system (i.e. make-up credits, biennium dates, course credits).
5. Licensed real estate entities and sole proprietors can view the CE requirements of their agents. (This feature was disabled when we transitioned to the new website.)
6. The multiple RB options (i.e. RB-Entity, RB-Sole, etc.) in the CE Status drop-down menu have been removed. Options currently available are RS and RB. In addition, the list is now organized in alphabetical order.

Here are some of the issues under review:

1. CE Providers unable to add attendees who took the same course 2 biennia ago for CE credit. Note: Hawaii Administrative Rules, Section 16-99-95 state, "... a licensee shall not take a continuing education course for which the licensee has already received a certificate within two consecutive biennia."
2. For continuing education courses, when a course is submitted (all attendees submitted together), the status remains as "open," rather than "submitted."
3. Salespersons who were licensed from 1/1/22-12/31/22 are exempt from this year's CE requirements, however, the CE required on their MyPVL account reflects they need 20 hours of CE.

Below are a list of other suggestions/improvements submitted by CE Providers and Prelicense Schools that are being reviewed.

- Intro Screen – Having the intro screen route to the course list instead of the Subject list.
- Have Course Rosters default by "Date Added" versus email for prelicense schools and license numbers for CE Providers. Please note that the different titles: Email, Name, Action can all be clicked on, so you can sort them however you prefer.

REMINDER: SUBMIT ALL CORE COURSE EVALUATIONS

Please continue to submit core course evaluations to the Real Estate Branch. At this time, you do not have to submit the course evaluations for any continuing education elective courses. Submit the core course evaluations in a format that is easily downloadable by staff. If this is not readily available, you may submit the evaluations in hard-copy.

Mahalo!
