Committees and Program of Work:

Condominium Review Committee

Program of Work, FY25, Condominium Laws and Education

Executive and Legislative Condo and Property Insurance Task Force request for informal, non-binding interpretation on the use of borrowing from condominium reserves for operating expenses

Condominium Specialist Choy provided a summary of the request and noted the Hawaii Administrative Rules has ambiguous language governing a condominium's ability to borrow from its reserves. Deputy Attorney General Wong affirmed, confirming that the Hawaii Administrative Rules does not explicitly permit nor prohibit any borrowing.

Commissioner Emery commented that there is a mandatory need to replenish condominium reserves and suggested that a language should be included in the Commission's interpretation requiring condominium reserves to be replenished.

Commissioner Andrews raised concerns about taking allocated funds with those funds already having a set purpose. Commissioner Emery wondered whether the matter has any single solution. He also commented that condominiums who experienced hurricane issues had rising premiums due to deferred maintenance and failing structures.

Condominium Specialist Choy stated that the task force only has proposals, and the Commission has proposed rules for chapter 514B, HRS. There are also adjustments being made in these proposed rules, but the rules itself have not undergone public hearing. Commissioner Abe expressed concern that the matter causes condominiums to exhaust its reserves, and inquired whether there is any temporary financing available. Chair Yamane reminded the Commission that the matter is being heard for the Commission to give an informal, non-binding interpretation. Vice-Chair Senter commented that the matter came to the Commission to assist condominium boards, allowing them to have time to minimize costs.

Upon a motion by Vice-Chair Senter, seconded by Commissioner Andrews, it was voted on and unanimously carried to take the matter under advisement.

There may be about 5-10 non-graded questions administered to candidates during the exam.

Commissioner La Costa raised concerns about the language pertaining to minimally competent candidates. Real Estate Specialist Endo explained that the minimally competent candidate serves as a baseline, and the Subject Matter Experts will determine the level of minimally competency needed to meet the standards of practice in the industry. Chair Yamane shared having the same question before but stated that the Commission should address the matter consistent with its responsibility to protect the public. Chair Yamane noted that the programs make sure that licensees are competent.
