Continuing Education Course Application

Course – “What High School You Went? Doing Business in Hawai'i 101”; Author/Owner, Dawn N. Chang, was present to give background, answer questions and receive feedback from the Commissioners. Commissioner Arakaki thanked Ms. Chang for appearing. The course is taught in three parts; historical background, relevant laws and the practical effects of doing business in Hawaii. Ms. Chang stated that doing business in Hawaii involves unique issues based on history including the Great Mahele, land rights, and cultural practices. Commissioner Arakaki suggested deleting the slide on the bombing of Pearl Harbor as it doesn't “fit” in with other included events.

Commissioner Pang suggested focusing the course on the second and third hours of the course outline and downplaying the first hour (historic events).

Commissioner Klein suggested diversifying the photos to include wahine not only men.

Commissioner Senter commented that the slide titled “Common Hawaiian Words to Know” may be more appropriately titled, “Common Local Words to Know”.

Commissioner Wada moved to take the course under advisement. Commissioner Cobb seconded the motion. The motion was voted on and unanimously carried.

Commissioner Senter asked applicant to clarify credit card incident on his arrest record. Mr. Hicks explained the incident occurred in 2008 in Tucson where he made a bad decision when trying to help a friend. They were at a bar and his friend was asked to leave. The establishment had said friend's credit card and did not allow him to pay his bill or retrieve his credit card. Mr. Hicks, in an attempt to help, pretended to be his friend to retrieve his credit card for him. The police who were already present at the establishment charged Mr. Hicks with providing false information to a police officer. Commissioner Faulkner asked applicant about his 2009 DUI on record. Mr. Hicks stated he was out with friends and was cited with speeding and DUI. Commissioner Senter asked applicant about his outstanding tax obligations. Mr. Hicks stated he owed federal taxes and was currently on a payment plan. Commissioner Klein asked applicant if he understood all the rules that come with having a real estate license.
