It was moved by Vice Chair Foreman, seconded by Dr. Mizumoto and unanimously carried to approve the April 8, 2026 ratification list. (See attached).

New Business: Chair McMenemy asked if any members from the public would like to provide oral testimony on this agenda item.

It was moved by Chair McMenemy, seconded by Ms. Rebella, and unanimously carried to enter into executive session at 1:12 p.m., pursuant to HRS §92-5(a)(4), to consult with the Board's attorney on questions and issues pertaining to the Board's powers, duties, privileges, immunities and liabilities.

It was moved by Ms. Rebella, seconded by Ms. Mizumoto, and unanimously carried to return to the open session meeting at 1:58 p.m. All Board members present confirmed that they were present.

A. Discussion on Proposed Revisions to HAR Chapter §16-72

It was moved by Ms. Rebella, seconded by Vice Chair Foreman, and unanimously carried to approve the following revisions to HAR Chapter §16-72:

- The Board restored the definition of "traditional oriental medicine" in section 16-72-3.
- The Board removed "acupuncture injection therapy" from section 16-72-4, which governs the authorized practice of acupuncture.
- In section 16-72-12(6), the Board added a specific reference to HRS 436E-3.6.

- The Board removed the proposed requirement for CPR certification for license renewal in section 16-72-46.

Chair McMenemy asked if any members from the public would like to provide oral testimony on this agenda item.

A licensed acupuncturist, Jane Tsuchiyama, raised questions on two primary issues:

- Removal of CPR Requirement for Renewals: The Board explained that this requirement appeared inconsistent in the renewal section, as it is not required for initial licensure and is not currently reflected in statute or rule. The Board noted that this issue may be revisited in the future following further review.
- Removal of Acupuncture Injection Therapy (AIT): The Board clarified that AIT is not currently supported by state statutes, and that inclusion within the authorized scope of practice would require prior statutory changes through the legislative process.

B. Scope of Practice Question: Inquiry Regarding the Scope of Practice for Acupuncturists and Shockwave Therapy

The board noted that certain electrostimulation techniques used in acupuncture and acupressure may overlap with shockwave therapy. However, additional research is needed to determine whether these methods fall within the scope of acupuncture practice.

Licensed acupuncturist Jane Tsuchiyama asked whether shockwave therapy is included in formal training programs, noting that other electrostimulation therapies are typically part of the curriculum.

A member of the public, Mel Pulicichio, commented that shockwave therapy is considered a Class I medical device and is permitted for use by acupuncturists. The device is generally not taught in formal coursework, as manufacturers provide training upon their introduction into practice.

It was moved by Ms. Rebella, seconded by Vice Chair Foreman, and unanimously carried to defer the matter to allow the DAG and EOs to conduct further legal and practitioner-level research on whether the therapy qualifies as "point stimulation" under the current law.

C. Reports from Dr. Jayne Tsuchiyama

- i. Name Change for National Certification Commission for Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine (NCCAOM) to National Certification Board for Acupuncture & Herbal Medicine (NCBAHM)
- ii. Update on national climate for acupuncture and licensing boards, national database, and Medicare coverage for acupuncture.

The NCBAHM made a presentation covering the following areas:

1. Administrative and Regulatory Support

- CEU and Audit Management: NCBAHM offers a centralized, auditable system for tracking continuing education (PDA points), documenting 60 credits over a four-year cycle. This system is intended to reduce the administrative burden on state board staff during license renewals and audits.
- Verification Tools: NCBAHM provides tools such as “CE Banking,” which allows providers to deposit credits directly into a practitioner’s transcript for streamlined verification of compliance by the Board.

2. Public Safety and Ethics

- The Four Pillars: The organization’s mission is based on four pillars: national examinations, ongoing competence (recertification), professional ethics, and disciplinary oversight.
- National Disciplinary Database: NCBAHM maintains a national database of final, due process-based disciplinary actions. This resource is intended to prevent misconduct from going unreported when practitioners move between states. NCBAHM offered to establish a formal information-sharing agreement (MOU) with the Hawaii board.

3. Professional Standards and Growth

- Minimum Competence: Certification reflects a nationally recognized standard of education, clinical training, and successful completion of psychometrically valid examinations.
- Federal Advocacy: NCBAHM highlighted its advocacy efforts in Washington, D.C., including obtaining a unique Bureau of Labor Statistics classification for acupuncturists and advocating for Medicare provider recognition.
- VA and DoD Integration: NCBAHM reported collaboration with the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) to improve veterans’ access to acupuncture services, noting strong participation in Hawaii.
